Report of the directors for the year ended 31st October 2010

The directors present their annual report together with the unaudited accounts of the company for the year ended 31st October 2010

Principal activities

The principal activity of the company is that of a sales consultancy

Directors

The director in office in the period and their beneficial interest in the company's issued ordinary share capital were as follows

	2010	2009
Mr David Ronald Suthers	1	1

Directors' Responsibilities

Company law requires the director to prepare accounts for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those accounts, the directors are required to

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,
- make adjustments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
- follow applicable accounting standards, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the accounts,
- prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The above report has been prepared in accordance with the special provisions of the Companies Act 2006 relating to small companies

Signed on behalf of the board of directors

Mr David Ronald Suthers 5th January 2011

Accountants' report to the shareholders on the unaudited accounts of D R Suthers & Company Limited.

We report the accounts on pages 3 to 7 which have been prepared in accordance with the accounting policies set out on page 5

Respective responsibilities of directors and reporting accountants

As described on page 1 the company's directors are responsible for the preparation of accounts, and they consider that the Company is exempt from an audit. It is our responsibility to carry out procedures designed to enable us to report our opinion

Basis of opinion

Our work was conducted in accordance with the Statement of Standards for Reporting Accountants, and so our procedures consisted of comparing the accounts with the accounting records kept by the Company, and making such limited enquiries of the officers of the Company as we considered necessary for the purposes of this report. These procedures provide only the assurance expressed in our opinion

Opinion

In our opinion

- the accounts are in agreement with the accounting records kept by the Company under the Companies Act 2006,
- (b) having regard only to, and on the basis of, the information contained in those accounting records
  - the accounts have been drawn up in a manner consistent with the accounting requirements specified in the Act, and
  - (ii) the Company satisfied the conditions for exemption from an audit of the accounts for the period specified in the Act and did not, at any time within that year, fall within any of the categories of companies not entitled to exemption specified in the Act
