Empty Box intends to offer new and exciting theatre and art/design workshops to young adults age 14+ to develop performance and design skills and allow them to create freely and develop a variety of different skills. The workshops will teach students concepts of contemporary performance by introducing new approaches to performing, creating art and creating their own theatrical environments	The workshops we offer are unique, they are not Art and drama workshops they are performance and design. They combine fleur's experience as a collaborator and performer in Empty Box and also her experience of contemporary performance, physical theatre and choreography, with Craig's extensive knowledge of contemporary design. They will develop performance and artistic skills using both throughout their time with us. The workshops will concentrate on drawing on the participant's creativity, teaching them various forms of artistic expression. We would hope to extend the workshops into adult education running various forms of movement and design workshops, and eventually raise enough capital to invest in a small workspace.
To raise awareness in the local community of contemporary performance art offering a variety of young people the opportunity to channel their creative energy into developing their own art and performance.  Please see attached sheet 2 for more information	We will also train young volunteers to help with admin or run workshops. We will provide an outlet for self-expression, develop imagination and artistic awareness, it will increase social and mental freedom, fluency of speech, self-respect, self-confidence and above all it's FUN! Empty Box would structure workshops to suit any age or ability, making people aware of other choices, raising expectations and in turn raising the profile of contemporary performance and design in the local area.

We will visit secondary schools and colleges for one day workshops or consecutive workshops if required. High schools and college can use the workshops as a study aid for students close to exams we will use whatever the subject is and build the workshops around that. We can offer a diverse range of workshops combining art and design with physical performance and text. We will be applying to local councils in a bid to run community workshops based around contemporary performance involving physical workshops, movement, developing scripts and performance and art and design. We would also like to look into several local groups that run every week for all ages from 15-60 and summer schools for 14-19yr olds where they would attend for 1 week in the summer and they would develop a script perform, direct and build sets and costumes. In the future we would like to run our own diverse multi cultural, multi disciplined arts centre for all to enjoy.
