Director's report

The director presents her unaudited annual report together with the financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2010

Principal activity and review of the business

The Company is a wholly-owned subsidiary undertaking of Camelot UK Lotteries Limited (formerly Camelot Group plc), a company registered in England and Wales. The Company is dormant and did not trade during the year and the director does not foresee any changes in the year ahead.

Results and dividends

The company has not traded during the year or the preceding financial year. During these years, the company received no income and incurred no expenditure and therefore made neither profit nor loss during the year. The financial position of the Company is set out in the attached financial statements. The director does not recommend the payment of a dividend.

Directors

The director of the Company who held office during the year ended 31 March 2010 was as follows:

D Thompson

Secretary

The secretary of the Company who held office during the year ended 31 March 2010 was as follows:

G Marcus (resigned 2 August 2010)

Director's interests

The director did not have any interest in the shares of the Company during the year. Their share interests in the ultimate parent company, Camelot UK Lotteries Limited, are shown in the report and accounts of that company.

Auditors

For the year ended 31 March 2010, the company was entitled to exemption under section 480 of the Companies Act 2006 relating to dormant companies. No members have required the company to obtain an audit of its accounts for the year in question in accordance with section 476.

General meeting

An elective resolution has been passed to dispense with the requirement to lay accounts before the Company in general meeting and to dispense with holding the general meeting.

CAMELOT LOTTERIES LIMITED

Statement of directors' responsibilities

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company as at the end of the financial year and of the profit or loss of the Company for that year. In preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements,
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business

The members have not required the company to obtain an audit of its accounts for the year in question in accordance with section 476

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records and the preparation of accounts, which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time, the financial position of the Company and which enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities
