Warning to all interested parties

This is an important notice and should not be ignored. The company named has applied to the Registrar to be struck off the Register and dissolved. Please note that on dissolution any remaining assets will be passed to the Crown. The Registrar will strike the company off the register unless there is reasonable cause not to do so. Guidance is available on grounds for objection. If in doubt, seek professional advice.

The application

Warning to all applicants

It is an offence to knowingly or recklessly provide false or misleading information on this application.

It is an offence to apply for strike-off under this section if the company has bearer shares in issue. ①

You are advised to read Section 4 and to consult the guidance available from Companies House before completing this form. If in doubt, seek professional advice.

I/We as director(s) / the majority of directors apply for this company to be struck off the Register and declare that none of the circumstances described in section 1004 or 1005 of the Companies Act 2006 (being circumstances in which the directors would otherwise be prohibited under those sections from making an application) exists in relation to the company. ②

This form must be signed by the sole director if only 1, by both if there are 2, or by the majority if there are more than 2.

→ Go to Section 3 'Name(s) and Signature(s) of the directors'

① Bearer shares are shares represented by a warrant and which have no registered holder.

② Please read the guidance on our website or see section 1003 or 1004 of the Companies Act 2006
for circumstances under which an application may not be made.

Please note that on dissolution
all property and rights etc will be passed to the Crown.

Further guidance

Guidance on striking off is available from our website.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and activities. It emphasizes the need for transparency and accountability in financial reporting.

2. The second part of the document outlines the various methods and techniques used to collect and analyze data. It includes a detailed description of the experimental procedures and the statistical analysis performed.

3. The third part of the document presents the results of the study. It includes a series of tables and graphs that illustrate the findings of the research. The data shows a clear trend of increasing activity over time.

4. The fourth part of the document discusses the implications of the findings. It suggests that the results have significant implications for the field of study and may lead to further research in this area.

5. The fifth part of the document concludes the study. It summarizes the main findings and provides a final statement on the importance of the research.

6. The sixth part of the document provides a detailed description of the experimental setup. It includes a list of the equipment used and a description of the procedures followed during the experiment.

7. The seventh part of the document discusses the limitations of the study. It acknowledges that there are certain factors that may have influenced the results and that further research is needed to confirm the findings.

8. The eighth part of the document provides a list of references. It includes a list of the books, articles, and other sources that were consulted during the research.

9. The ninth part of the document provides a list of appendices. It includes a list of the additional information that is provided in the document, such as the raw data and the detailed calculations.

10. The tenth part of the document provides a list of figures. It includes a list of the graphs and charts that are included in the document.
