  - (a) payable in respect of shares, and
  - (b) unclaimed after having been declared or become payable,

- 39 3 If
  - (a) twelve years have passed from the date on which a dividend or other sum became due for payment, and
  - (b) the distribution recipient has not claimed it, the distribution recipient is no longer entitled to that dividend or other sum and it ceases to remain owing by the Company

40. Non-cash distributions

- Subject to the terms of issue of the share in question, the Company may, by ordinary resolution on the recommendation of the Directors, decide to pay all or part of a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share by transferring non-cash assets of equivalent value (including, without limitation, shares or other securities in any company)
- 40.2 For the purposes of paying a non-cash distribution, the Directors may make whatever arrangements they think fit, including, where any difficulty arises regarding the distribution

  - (c) vesting any assets in trustees

41. Waiver of distributions

Explanatory Notes: CIC Limited by Shares, Schedule 2, Small Membership

- <sup>1</sup> On articles of association generally, see [Part 5] of the Regulator's information and guidance notes—If you are an existing company wishing to become a community interest company, there is no need to adopt completely new articles—but you must comply with the requirements of the Regulations by including the provisions set out in Schedule 2 to the Regulations in the articles of your company
- <sup>2</sup> See [Part 6] of the Regulator's information and guidance notes—Inclusion of the provisions contained in articles 3 1 to 3 3 (reflecting paragraph 1(1) to (3) of Schedule 2 to the Regulations) is mandatory
- When a CIC is wound up, its "residual assets" are any property remaining after satisfaction of the company's liabilities under the Insolvency Act 1986. The Regulations permit shareholders to be paid back, out of the residual assets, the nominal value of their shares. Anything left over after this process is classed as "remaining residual assets" and must be paid to a specified Asset Locked Body (or, if no such body is specified, to an Asset Locked Body chosen by the Regulator in consultation with the company)
- <sup>4</sup> On limited hability and share capital generally, see [Part 3] of the Regulator's information and guidance notes <sup>5</sup> Note that although this model constitution assumes that all directors are issued shares and the directors are given wide powers, under the Articles (and company law more generally) there are still some decisions which
- given wide powers, under the Articles (and company law more generally) there are still some decisions which shareholders must make as shareholders (either in general meeting under the Companies Act 2006 (article 43), or by written resolution in accordance with article 44) [See in general the Companies House guidance booklet, "Resolutions (available online at http://www.companieshouse.gov.uk/about/gbhtml/gba7.shtml)]
- <sup>6</sup> Article 11 permits the directors to delegate any of their functions. Delegation may take the form of, for instance, the directors giving a managing director general authority to run the company's day to day business, or responsibility for specific matters being delegated to particular directors (e.g. financial matters to a finance director). Oi, it may be equally appropriate to delegate matters to persons other than directors. In all cases, it is important to remember that delegation does not absolve directors of their general duties towards the company and their overall responsibility for its management. This means that, amongst other things, directors must be satisfied that those to whom responsibilities are delegated are competent to carry them out
- <sup>7</sup> Article 12 states that the directors must make decisions by majority at a meeting subject to article 14, or unanimously if taken in accordance with article 18
- <sup>8</sup> Article 14.2 is designed to facilitate the taking of decisions by the directors via telephone or video conference calls. Note the requirement to keep a written record of meetings and decisions (article 47)
- <sup>9</sup> The quorum may be fixed in absolute terms (e.g. "two directors") or as a proportion of the total number of directors (e.g. "one third of the total number of directors"). You may even wish to stipulate that particular named directors, or directors representing particular stakeholder interests, must be present to constitute a quorum.
- quoium

  10 Article 17 reflects paragraph 4 of Schedule 2 to the Regulations, which is required to be included in the articles of all community interest companies limited by shares
- <sup>11</sup> You may wish to include a provision which gives the Chair of the board a casting vote. This will enable the directors to resolve any deadlock at board level
- <sup>12</sup> Article 18 is designed to facilitate the taking of decisions by directors following discussions in the form of, for example, email exchanges copied to all the directors. Note the requirements as to recording the decision in articles 18 2 and 47
- <sup>13</sup> The provisions in articles 19 and 20 reflect the position under the Companies Act 2006 However, it is recommended that, as a matter of good practice, all actual and potential conflicts of interest are disclosed in writing or at a meeting, as the case may be
- Private companies are obliged to have at least one director. Provisions can be inserted into the articles providing for a minimum number of directors. Where the company has just one director, that director must be a natural person. Article 12 notes that, where there is only one director, a majority decision is reached when that director makes a decision. In the case of a single director, the quorum provisions (article 15) will need to be amended accordingly.
- <sup>15</sup> In this set of model articles there is no requirement for all directors to be members (shareholders) of the company, since it is likely that the only member will be Asset Locked Bodies
- <sup>16</sup> The board of directors cannot remove a director other than in accordance with the provisions in article 23 and the Companies Act 2006
- <sup>17</sup> See the guidance on directors' remuneration in [Part 9] of the Regulator's information and guidance notes
- <sup>18</sup> Note that unless specific wording is added to the contrary the directors of a company with only one class of shares will be able to issue new shares without needing the consent of the existing shareholders. If appropriate limitations (such as a cap on the number of shares) can be added but bespoke drafting will be required
- <sup>19</sup> If the company does not have a common seal, share certificates can be executed by two directors, by one director and the secretary (if there is one), or by one director in the presence of an independent witness

<sup>22</sup> In the event of the death of a shareholder, the share will pass according to the will of the deceased shareholder, or the intestacy rules

<sup>23</sup> A company which does not intend to pay dividends or make other distributions to private investors (i.e. a company which adopts the provisions of Schedule 2 to the Regulations rather than those of Schedule 3) should not make use of this provision to pay dividends on any share held by a private investor, as the payment of any such dividends will amount to a breach of the asset lock provisions set out in paragraph 1 of Schedule 2 and article 3

article 3
<sup>24</sup> The Companies Act 2006 has removed the need for private companies to hold annual general meetings and therefore these Articles follow suit, however, if you wish, you can insert an additional provision which obliges the company to hold annual general meetings

Article 43.2 provides that general meetings must be held in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act 2006. You may insert additional provisions that specify how many shareholders are required to be present to hold a valid general meeting. The quorum may be fixed in absolute terms (e.g. "four shareholders") or as a proportion of the total number of shareholders (e.g. "three quarters of the shareholders from time to time"). You may even wish to stipulate that particular named shareholders or shareholders representing particular stakeholder interests, must be present to constitute a quorum. In any event, it is recommended that the quorum should never be less than half of the total number of shareholders.

<sup>26</sup> Article 43 3 reflects paragraph 3(1) of Schedule 2 to the Regulations and is mandatory

<sup>27</sup> See the Companies House guidance booklet, 'Accounts and Accounting Reference Dates' (available online at http://www.companies-house.gov.uk/about/gbhtml/gba3.shtml) ] On the annual community interest company report see [Part 8] of the Regulator's information and guidance notes

<sup>28</sup> Section 1(1) of the Charities Act 2006 defines "charity" as an institution which "is established for charitable purposes only, and falls to be subject to the control of the High Court in the exercise of its jurisdiction with respect to charities

 $<sup>^{20}</sup>$  Articles 31.5 – 31.8 are mandatory, reflecting paragraph 2 of Schedule 2 to the Regulations. The model constitution does not contain any other additional restrictions on the transfer of shares, but note that the Directors may refuse to register a transfer of shares to a person of whom they do not approve

&lt;sup>21</sup> A company which adopts the provisions of Schedule 2 to the Regulations rather than Schedule 3 to the Regulations (i.e. a company which only intends to pay dividends to asset-locked bodies) must not make use of this provision to buy back any share which is not held by an asset-locked body, as the repurchase of such shares will amount to a breach of the asset lock provisions set out in paragraph 1 of Schedule 2 and article 3. This article in itself does not provide sufficient authority for the company to purchase its own shares. The company must also comply with the relevant statutory requirements, in particular sections 693—700 of the Companies Act 2006. We recommended that you take legal advice before taking any steps towards the company purchasing its own shares. It is important that any purchase of shares made in accordance with this article is also made in accordance with article 3 (asset lock).
