COMPANIES HOUSE

Warning to all interested parties

This is an important notice and should not be ignored. The LLP named has applied to the Registrar to be struck off the Register and dissolved. Please note that on dissolution any remaining assets will be passed to the Crown. The Registrar will strike the LLP off the register unless there is reasonable cause not to do so. Guidance is available on grounds for objection. If in doubt, seek professional advice.

The application

Warning to all applicants

It is an offence to knowingly or recklessly provide false or misleading information on this application.

You are advised to read section 4 and to consult the guidance available from Companies House before completing this form. If in doubt, seek professional advice.

We as members/the majority of members apply for this LLP to be struck off the Register and declare that none of the circumstances described in section 1004 or 1005 of the Companies Act 2006 as applied by LLPs (being circumstances in which the members would otherwise be prohibited under those sections from making an application) exists in relation to the LLP. ①

This form must be signed by a majority of the members of an LLP or if there are only two such members, by both of them; or if there is only one remaining member of an LLP, by that member.

→ Go to Section 3 'Name(s) and Signature(s) of the members'

① Please read the guidance on our website at www.companieshouse.gov.uk or section 1004 or 1005 of the Companies Act 2006 (as applied by LLPs) for circumstances under which an application may not be made.

Please note that on dissolution
all property and rights etc. will be passed to the Crown.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for the transparency and accountability of the organization. This section also outlines the various methods used to collect and analyze data, ensuring that the information is reliable and up-to-date.

2. The second part of the document focuses on the implementation of the proposed changes. It details the steps involved in the transition process, from the initial planning phase to the final execution. This section also addresses the potential challenges that may arise during the implementation and provides strategies to overcome them.

3. The third part of the document discusses the long-term impact of the changes. It highlights the expected benefits, such as improved efficiency and cost savings, and provides a timeline for when these benefits are anticipated to be realized. This section also includes a discussion on the ongoing monitoring and evaluation of the changes to ensure they continue to meet the organization's needs.

4. The fourth part of the document provides a summary of the key findings and conclusions. It reiterates the importance of the changes and the commitment of the organization to their successful implementation. This section also includes a call to action for all stakeholders to support the changes and work together to achieve the organization's goals.

5. The fifth part of the document contains the appendices, which include additional information and data that support the main text. This section includes a list of references, a glossary of terms, and a detailed index. The appendices provide a comprehensive overview of the document's content and serve as a valuable resource for readers who need more information on specific topics.

4 What to do next

Notify all parties

Please ensure that you send copies of this application to all notifiable parties e.g. creditors, employees, pension managers or trustees and other members of the LLP within 7 days of the day on which the application is made.

Please also send copies to anyone who later becomes a notifiable party within 7 days of this taking place. This applies from the day of application and before the day on which the application is finally dealt with or withdrawn. Please check the guidance, which contains a full list of those who must be notified. Failure to notify interested parties is an offence. It is advisable to obtain and retain some proof of delivery or posting of copies to notifiable parties.

Withdrawal of striking off application by a LLP

If the LLP ceases to be eligible for striking off at any time after the application is made, and before the application is finally dealt with, as specified in section 1009 of the Companies Act 2006, then the application must be withdrawn using form LL DS02 'Withdrawal of striking off application by a Limited Liability Partnership (LLP) available from our website: www.companieshouse.gov.uk
