OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Significant activities

Against these objectives and in line with our Strategic and Business Plan the following activities were carried out between March 2015 and March 2017 are organised below by activity area.

a) Research and development

Research and development to support implementation and impact of the Alliance for Water Stewardship Standard

During 2016-17 our team supported and documented the costs and benefits of further applications of the AWS standard in Africa by Diageo. We are now leading research and development with Diageo and others to downscale the application and guidance on AWS for smallholders and SMEs in Africa. We are also working with groups in Zambia as part of our R&D around the standard. This work is being supported by the Scottish Government's Climate Justice Fund and with their support we hosted a Regional Water Stewardship Leaders Forum and regional training in April 2016.

This activity helps deliver objectives. 1.1 to 1.10

b) Advocacy and communication

Social Accountability Monitoring for water security in East and Southern Africa

We continued and extended delivery of Phase II of our Fair Water Futures Programme project, through additional investment of £200 000 from the Scottish Government's climate justice fund. This has allowed us to extend operations in both Tanzania and Zambia and will see us approach 1 million beneficiaries including in several new case study sites.

The work also drives system change for pro-poor water management and significant achievements have been registered over the year, with: formal commitment to increased and sustainable financing for water resource management as a result of our submission to the Joint Sector Review in Tanzania; new commitment to hold an annual sector review process in Zambia.

We have also shared our learning internationally, and have initiated a new partnership with Oxfam, WaterAid and WIN to support a global community of practice and learning. The partnership was catalysed following our co-leadership of a keynote session at Stockholm Water Week.

This activity helps deliver objectives 1.1 to 1.10

c) Capacity building and service delivery

Global Water Stewardship Forum, Edinburgh

In November 2016 WWI led several sessions at the Global Water Stewardship Forum in Edinburgh to support progress in water stewardship.

This activity helps deliver objectives 1.1-1.7 and 1.10.

Professional Development and MSc training at the UEA Water Security Centre, and University of Edinburgh

In June 2016 WWI provided training services to University of East Anglia's Water security MSc course, Policy makers training and continues to support the University of Edinburgh's Undergraduate and Masters courses.

Practitioner-2-Practitioner

In February 2017 WWI hosted an international capacity building exchange which saw the Deputy Director of Water Resources in Tanzania spend two weeks within the UK, as a model for long term capacity support exchange between UK and African water managers.

2016-17 year has seen the consolidation of the organisations work and credibility, with staff headcount stabilising at eleven. This year has seen us revise our governance structure and invest in securing new funding from new sources, namely grant making foundations in the US and the UK. With an imminent core funding agreement for the next 3 years, this puts us in a strong position to extend the reach and depth of delivery against our charitable objectives.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Financial position

This has been another significant year for the charity with major projects continuing from last year and others coming online and the funding for these resulting in a significant increase in the overall figures.

Total income has decreased from £489,234 to £463,316, and total expenditure has increased from £454,195 to £462,252. The surplus for this year is £1,064 (2016 £35,039).

Reserves policy

The projects undertaken to date have had specific funding provided to perform the tasks required. As such there have been few opportunities to build a general reserve for other works and general expenses. The Trustees are aware of the need to do so in order to meet ongoing costs and to allow the charity to be able to develop further.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Governing document

The organisation is a company limited by guarantee, as defined by the Companies Act 2006, and is governed by its Memorandum and Articles of Association. Every member undertakes to contribute such an amount as may be required towards the debts and liabilities of the company in the event of its being wound up, but not exceeding the sum of £1.

In 2012 WWI revised and implemented a range of new governance and operational policies to reflect the growth in our work and organisation. These included: child and vulnerable people protection; anti-bribery; HIV in the workplace; IT security; Health and Safety; ethics; equal opportunities and environment, together with a risk management procedure and register; financial manual. To oversee this development and implementation an Audit and Finance Committee (AFC) was established. The AFC is overseeing a review of these policies and procedures which will be completed in 2017.

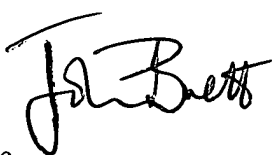

Recruitment and appointment of new trustees

The WWI Trustee recruitment process involves advertising our call and role specification through multiple channels, ahead of an informal interview and orientation training. If it is found that the interests and skills of the individual align with the needs identified in our Board skills matrix, then the appointment is put before our board for a vote, as per our Memorandum and Articles.

Risk management

The trustees have a duty to identify and review the risks to which the charity is exposed and to ensure appropriate controls are in place to provide reasonable assurance against fraud and error.

Approved by order of the board of trustees on 10th August 2017 and signed on its behalf by:

J M Brett - Trustee

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF WATER WITNESS INTERNATIONAL

I report on the accounts for the year ended 31st March 2017 set out on pages seven to thirteen.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity's trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1)(a) to (c) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under Section 44(1)(c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of the independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1)(a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with Regulation 8 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations

have not been met; or

- (2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

7. MOVEMENT IN FUNDS - continued

The Fair Water Futures fund is a project in Tanzania, with grant funding from the UK Government through the Department For International Development. This project is now complete and the fixed assets remaining from it have been transferred to the Climate Justice Fund.

The Climate Justice Fund from the Scottish Government provides for Phase II of the Fair Water Futures Programme and supports scaling up of the project in Tanzania and extension into Zambia. The work combines social accountability monitoring, budget analysis, advocacy and private sector stewardship with capacity building support to improve water management for the benefit of vulnerable communities.

The International Water Stewardship Programme (IWaSP) is a joint investment by the UK and German governments to maximise the contribution of the private sector engagement and collective action between the private sector, civil society and governments to improved water management in developing countries.

WWI is a key partner within this work, supporting strategic analysis and planning, lesson learning, development of guidance and ensuring effective engagement with communities.
