Notes to the abbreviated financial statements for the year ended 30 April 2010

1 Accounting policies

These financial statements are prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with applicable accounting standards. The significant accounting policies adopted are set out below. The directors consider that these accounting policies set out below are suitable, have been consistently applied and are supported by reasonable and prudent judgements and estimates.

Turnover

Turnover is recognised on completion of sales of houses and on rentals received.

Stocks

Stocks are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost comprises site purchase, materials, direct wages and other direct production costs together with all production overheads relevant to the stage of completion of work in progress and finished goods. All direct professional fees and interest specific to the project is capitalised. Costs are released from work in progress and matched to revenue on completion of sales contracts.
