COMPANIES HOUSE

Warning to all interested parties

This is an important notice and should not be ignored. The company named has applied to the Registrar to be struck off the Register and dissolved. Please note that on dissolution any remaining assets will be passed to the Crown. The Registrar will strike the company off the register unless there is reasonable cause not to do so. Guidance is available on grounds for objection. If in doubt, seek professional advice.

2 The application

Warning to all applicants

It is an offence to knowingly or recklessly provide false or misleading information on this application.

It is an offence to apply for strike-off under this section if the company has bearer shares in issue. ①

You are advised to read Section 4 and to consult the guidance available from Companies House before completing this form. If in doubt, seek professional advice.

I/We as director(s) / the majority of directors apply for this company to be struck off the Register and declare that none of the circumstances described in section 1004 or 1005 of the Companies Act 2006 (being circumstances in which the directors would otherwise be prohibited under those sections from making an application) exists in relation to the company. ②

This form must be signed by the sole director if only 1, by both if there are 2, or by the majority if there are more than 2.

→ Go to Section 3 'Name(s) and Signature(s) of the directors'

① Bearer shares are shares represented by a warrant and which have no registered holder.

② Please read the guidance on our website or see section 1003 or 1004 of the Companies Act 2006 for circumstances under which an application may not be made.

Please note that on dissolution all property and rights etc will be passed to the Crown.

4 What to do next

Notify all parties

Please ensure that you send copies of this application to all notifiable parties e.g. creditors, employees, shareholders, pension managers or trustees and other directors of the company within 7 days from the day on which the application is made.

Please also send copies to anyone who later becomes a notifiable party within 7 days of this taking place. This applies from the day of application and before the day on which the application is finally dealt with or withdrawn. Please check the guidance notes which contain a full list of those who must be notified. Failure to notify interested parties is an offence. It is advisable to obtain and retain some proof of delivery or posting of copies to notifiable parties.

Withdrawal of striking off application by a company

If the company ceases to be eligible for striking off at any time after the application is made, and before the application is finally dealt with, as specified in section 1009 of the Companies Act 2006, then the application must be withdrawn using form DS02 'Withdrawal of striking off application by a company' available from our website: www.gov.uk/companieshouse

Guidance on completing paper form Striking off application by a company (DS01)

The application for strike off (form DS01) may appear straightforward, but many are rejected for filing and returned for amendment. Please pay particular attention to the top reasons for rejection and guidance on how to avoid them:

Printed name of the signatory is missing

The name of each signatory must be printed clearly within the 'Name' field located in section 3 of form DS01.

Signature date is missing

Each signature must be accompanied by a date within the 'Signature Date' field in section 3 of form DS01.

Form not signed by majority of directors

A majority of the company's directors must sign the form DS01 (section 3). For example, if the company has two directors then both must sign, or if the company has three directors then at least two must sign.

£10 fee not sent

A fee of £10 (by cheque or postal order) must be sent with the form and made payable to Companies House. Cheques should not be payable from the account of the company applying for strike-off.

Company name or number is/are incorrect or missing

The company name and number must be provided on the form in full. Both should match the name and number held on Companies House records.

For more information, please view our detailed guidance on Company strike off, dissolution and restoration
