STATEMENT OF DIRECTOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES

The director is required by the Companies Act 1985 to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company at the end of the financial year and of the profit or loss of the company for the financial year. The director considers that in preparing these financial statements, the company has used appropriate accounting policies, consistently applied and supported by reasonable and prudent judgements and estimates and confirms that all applicable standards have been followed. The financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis.

The director has responsibility for ensuring that the company keeps accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and which enables him to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. The director also has the responsibility for safeguarding the assets of the company and for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.
