What to do next

Notify all parties.

Please ensure that you send copies of this application to all notifiable parties e.g. creditors, employees, shareholders, pension managers or trustees and other directors of the company within 7 days from the day on which the application is made.

Please also send copies to anyone who later becomes a notifiable party within 7 days of this taking place. This applies from the day of application and before the day on which the application is finally dealt with or withdrawn. Please check the guidance which contain a full list of those who must be notified. Failure to notify interested parties is an offence. It is advisable to obtain and retain some proof of delivery or posting of copies to notifiable parties.

Withdrawal of striking off application by a company.

If the company ceases to be eligible for striking off at any time after the application is made, and before the application is finally dealt with, as specified in section 1009 of the Companies Act 2006, then the application must be withdrawn using form DS02 'Withdrawal of striking off application by a company' available from our website: www.companieshouse.gov.uk

1. The first of the two is a "copy" of the original document, which is made by a process called "photocopying". This process involves shining a light on the original document and capturing the reflected light on a piece of paper. The result is a copy that is very similar to the original, but it is not a perfect reproduction. There are several factors that can affect the quality of a photocopy, including the quality of the original document, the quality of the photocopying process, and the quality of the paper used for the copy.
