2. LIABILITY OF MEMBERS

The liability of the members is limited to the amount, if any, unpaid on the shares held by them.

PART 2

DIRECTORS

DIRECTORS' POWERS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

3. DIRECTORS' GENERAL AUTHORITY

Subject to the articles, the directors are responsible for the management of the company's business, for which purpose they may exercise all the powers of the company (as set out in the Scheme of Delegation and Reservation).

4. SHAREHOLDERS' RESERVE POWER

4.1 The Trust is the first shareholder of the company. The Trust is a Contracting Authority for the purposes of the Public Contracts Regulations 2015. Unless otherwise agreed by ordinary resolution, membership of the Company is open only to Contracting Authorities.

- 4.2 Subject always to the provisions of the articles and the Companies Acts, the shareholders may, by written notice, direct the directors to take, or refrain from taking, specified action. No such written notice invalidates anything which the directors have done before the receipt of such notice.
- 4.3 More than 80% of the company's activities shall be carried out in the performance of tasks entrusted to it by the shareholders.
- 4.4 There shall be no direct private capital participation in the Company with the exception of non-controlling and non-blocking forms of private capital participation, which do not exert a decisive influence on the Company.

5. DIRECTORS MAY DELEGATE

- 5.1 Subject to the articles (in particular 4.2), the directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under the articles:
 - 5.1.1 to such person or committee;
 - 5.1.2 by such means (including by power of attorney);
 - 5.1.3 to such an extent;
 - 5.1.4 in relation to such matters or territories; and
 - 5.1.5 on such terms and conditions,as they think fit.
- 5.2 If the directors so specify, any such delegation may authorise further delegation of the directors' powers by any person to whom they are delegated.
- 5.3 The directors may revoke any delegation, in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions.

6. COMMITTEES

- 6.1 Committees to which the directors delegate any of their powers must follow procedures which are based as far as they are applicable on those provisions of the articles which govern the taking of decisions by directors.
- 6.2 The directors may make rules of procedure for all or any committees which prevail over rules derived from the articles if they are not consistent with them.

DECISION-MAKING BY DIRECTORS

7. DIRECTORS TO TAKE DECISIONS COLLECTIVELY

- 7.1 The general rule about decision-making by directors is that any decision of the directors must be either a majority decision at a meeting or a decision taken in accordance with article 8.
- 7.2 If:
 - 7.2.1 the company only has one director; and
 - 7.2.2 no provision of the articles requires it to have more than one director, the general rule does not apply, and the director may (for so long as he remains the sole director) take decisions without regard to any of the provisions of the articles relating to directors' decision-making.

8. UNANIMOUS DECISIONS

- 8.1 A decision of the directors is taken in accordance with this article when all eligible directors indicate to each other by any means that they share a common view on a matter.
- 8.2 Such a decision may take the form of a resolution in writing where each eligible director has signed one or more copies of it, or to which each eligible director has otherwise indicated agreement in writing.
- 8.3 A decision may not be taken in accordance with this article if the eligible directors would not have formed a quorum at such a meeting.

9. CALLING A DIRECTORS' MEETING

- 9.1 Any director may call a directors' meeting by giving reasonable notice of the meeting to the directors or by authorising the company secretary (if any) to give such notice.
- 9.2 Notice of any directors' meeting must indicate:
 - 9.2.1 its proposed date and time;
 - 9.2.2 where it is to take place; and
 - 9.2.3 if it is anticipated that directors participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting.
- 9.3 Notice of a directors' meeting must be given to each director, but need not be in writing.
- 9.4 Notice of a directors' meeting need not be given to directors who waive their entitlement to notice of that meeting, by giving notice to that effect to the company not more than 7 days after the date on which the meeting is held. Where such waiver is given after the meeting has been held, that does not affect the validity of the meeting, or of any business conducted at it.

10. PARTICIPATION IN DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

- 10.1 Subject to the articles, directors participate in a directors' meeting, or part of a directors' meeting, when:
 - 10.1.1 the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the articles; and
 - 10.1.2 they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting.
- 10.2 In determining whether directors are participating in a directors' meeting, it is irrelevant where any director is or how they communicate with each other.
- 10.3 All or any of the directors may participate in a meeting of directors by means of a telephone conference call or any communication equipment which allows all persons in the meeting to hear each other. A person so participating shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting and shall be counted in the quorum accordingly. Such meeting shall be deemed to take place where the largest group of those participating is assembled or, if there is no such group, where the chairman of the meeting is.

11. QUORUM FOR DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

- 11.1 At a directors' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting.
- 11.2 The quorum for the transaction of business at a meeting of directors is any three (3) eligible directors, one of whom must be an independent non-executive director, or where there are less than three directors in office, for the time being, all those directors of the Company.
- 11.3 For the purposes of any meeting (or part of a meeting) held pursuant to article 14 to authorise a Conflict, if there is only one eligible director in office other than the conflicted director(s), the quorum for such meeting (or part of a meeting) shall be one eligible director.
- 11.4 If the total number of directors for the time being is less than the quorum required, the directors must not take any decision other than a decision:
 - 11.4.1 to appoint further directors; or
 - 11.4.2 to call a general meeting so as to enable the shareholders to appoint further directors.

12. CHAIRING OF DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

- 12.1 The directors may appoint a director to chair their meetings.
- 12.2 The person so appointed for the time being is known as the chairman.
- 12.3 The directors may terminate the chairman's appointment at any time.
- 12.4 If the chairman is not participating in a directors' meeting within ten minutes of the time at which it was to start, the participating directors must appoint one of themselves to chair it.

13. CASTING VOTE

- 13.1 If the numbers of votes for and against a proposal are equal, the chairman or other director chairing the meeting has, subject to article 13.2, a casting vote.
- 13.2 If, in accordance with the articles, the chairman or other director is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes, he shall not have a casting vote.

14. CONFLICTS AND DECLARATIONS OF INTEREST

- 14.1 Without prejudice to articles 14.6 and 14.7, the directors shall, for the purposes of section 175 of the Companies Act 2006, have the power to authorise any matter which would or might otherwise constitute or give rise to a breach of the duty of a director under that section to avoid a situation in which he has, or can have, a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interests of the company ("Conflict").
- 14.2 Authorisation of a matter under article 14.1 shall be effective only if:
 - 14.2.1 the matter in question shall have been proposed in writing for consideration at a meeting of the directors in accordance with the directors' normal procedures or in any other manner as the directors may determine;

- 14.2.2 the director in question must provide the other directors with such details as are necessary for the directors to decide whether or not to authorise the conflict together with any additional information as may be required by the directors;
 - 14.2.3 any requirement as to the quorum at the meeting of the directors at which the matter is considered is met without counting the director in question or any other interested director (together the "Interested Directors", and each an "Interested Director"); and
 - 14.2.4 the matter was agreed to without any Interested Director voting or would have been agreed to if the votes of the Interested Directors had not been counted.
- 14.3 Any authorisation of a matter under article 14.1 shall be subject to such conditions or limitations as the directors may determine (including, without limitation, such conditions or limitations as are contemplated by article 14.17), whether at the time such authorisation is given or subsequently and may be terminated by the directors at any time. A director shall comply with any obligations imposed on him by the directors pursuant to any such authorisation.
- 14.4 Any authorisation of a matter under article 14.1 extends, subject to any conditions or limitations imposed under article 14.3, to any actual or potential Conflict which may reasonably be expected to arise out of the matter so authorised. The directors may revoke or vary such authorisation at any time, but this will not affect anything done by the Interested Director, before such revocation or variation, in accordance with the terms of such authorisation.
- 14.5 Subject to any conditions or limitations imposed under article 14.3, a director shall not, save as otherwise agreed by him, be accountable to the company for any benefit which he (or any person connected in any way with him) derives from any matter authorised by the directors under article 14.1 and no contract, transaction, arrangement or proposal relating thereto shall be liable to be avoided on the grounds of any such benefit.
- 14.6 Article 14.1 does not apply to a Conflict arising in relation to a transaction or arrangement with the company.
- 14.7 Subject to compliance with article 14.8, a director may, notwithstanding his office, have any interest of any of the following kinds (and no authorisation under article 14.1 shall be necessary in respect of any such interest):
- 14.7.1 where the director (or any person connected in any way with him) is a director or other officer of, is employed by or is otherwise interested (including, without limitation, by the holding of shares or other securities) in any body corporate with which the company is associated (within the meaning of section 256(a) of the Companies Act 2006);
 - 14.7.2 where the director (or any person connected in any way with him) is a party to, or otherwise interested in, any contract, transaction, arrangement or proposal with the company or any body corporate with which the company is associated (within the meaning of section 256(a) of the Companies Act 2006), or in which the company is otherwise interested;
 - 14.7.3 an interest such that the situation or the interest cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a Conflict;
 - 14.7.4 an interest, or a contract, transaction, arrangement or proposal giving rise to an interest, of which the director is not aware; and
 - 14.7.5 any other interest authorised by an ordinary resolution of the company.

- 14.8 Subject to sections 177 and 182 of the Companies Act 2006, the director concerned shall declare the nature and extent of any interest, whether direct or indirect, referred to in article 14.7 and not falling within article 14.9 either at a meeting of the directors by written declaration to the company (or in any other manner as the directors may determine) or by general notice in accordance with section 177(2)(b)(ii) or section 182(2)(c) (as the case may be) and section 185 of the Companies Act 2006.
- 14.9 No declaration of an interest shall be required by a director under article 14.8 in relation to an interest:
- 14.9.1 falling within article 14.7.3 or article 14.7.4;
 - 14.9.2 if, or to the extent that, the other directors are already aware of such interest (and for this purpose the other directors are treated as being aware of anything of which they ought reasonably to be aware); or
 - 14.9.3 if, or to the extent that, it concerns the terms of his service contract (as defined in section 227 of the Companies Act 2006) that have been or are to be considered by a meeting of the directors or by a committee of directors appointed for the purpose under these articles.
- 14.10 A director shall not, save as otherwise agreed by him, be accountable to the company for any benefit which he (or any person connected in any way with him) derives from any interest referred to in article 14.7 and no contract, transaction, arrangement or proposal shall be liable to be avoided on the grounds of any such interest.
- 14.11 Provided he has disclosed to the directors any interest of which he is aware (not being an interest which cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a Conflict) in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 and these articles, a director shall, subject to any applicable conditions or limitations imposed under article 14.3, be entitled to vote at a meeting of the directors or of a committee of the directors in respect of any contract, transaction, arrangement or proposal in which he is interested and shall also be counted in determining whether a quorum is present at such a meeting.
- 14.12 Without prejudice to article 14.11, if a question arises at any time as to whether any interest of a director prevents him or should prevent him from voting or being counted in the quorum under this article 14 and such question is not resolved by his voluntarily agreeing to abstain from voting and/or attending, such question shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting and his ruling in relation to any director other than himself shall be final and conclusive, except in a case where the nature or extent of the interest of such director (so far as it is known to him) has not been fairly disclosed.
- 14.13 Without prejudice to article 14.11, if any question as to the right to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) should arise in respect of the chairman, the question shall be decided by a decision of the directors, for which purpose the chairman is not to be counted as participating in the meeting (or part of the meeting) for voting and quorum purposes, and the decision shall be conclusive, except in a case where the nature or extent of the interest of the chairman of the meeting (so far as it is known to him) has not been fairly disclosed to the directors.
- 14.14 Subject to article 14.15, if a director, otherwise than by virtue of his position as a director, receives information in respect of which he owes a duty of confidentiality to a person other than the company, he shall not be required to disclose such information to the company or the directors or any of them, or otherwise use or apply such confidential information for the purpose of or in connection with the performance of his duties as a director.
- 14.15 Where a duty of confidentiality as referred to in article 14.14 arises out of a situation in which the director has, or can have, a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interests of the company, article 14.14 shall apply only if the conflict arises out of a matter which has been authorised under article 14.1 or falls within article 14.7.

- 14.16 Article 14.14 is without prejudice to any enactment, equitable principle or rule of law which may excuse or release a director from disclosing information in circumstances where disclosure may otherwise be required.
- 14.17 Where a director has an interest which can reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a Conflict, the director may, and shall if so requested by the directors, take such additional steps as may be necessary or desirable for the purpose of managing such Conflict, including compliance with any procedures laid down from time to time by the directors for the purpose of managing Conflicts generally and/or any specific procedures approved by the directors for the purpose of or in connection with the relevant matter or situation, including without limitation:
- 14.17.1 absenting himself from any meeting or part of a meeting of the directors or of any committee of the directors at which the relevant matter or situation falls to be considered or is otherwise significant; and
- 14.17.2 not reviewing documents or information made available to the directors generally in relation to such matter or situation.
- 14.18 The company may by ordinary resolution ratify any contract, transaction, arrangement or proposal not properly authorised by reason of a contravention of any provision of this article 14.
- 14.19 For the purposes of this article 14, where the context permits, any reference to an interest includes a duty and any reference to a conflict of interest includes a conflict of interest and duty and a conflict of duties.
- 14.20 For the purposes of this article, references to proposed decisions and decision-making processes include any directors' meeting or part of a directors' meeting.
- 14.21 Without prejudice to Article 14.1, a director of the company who is also a director of the Trust shall always be authorised to be in a position of Conflict and he can participate in a vote on and be counted in the quorum in respect of any conflicted matters arising from any business transaction between the company and the Trust.

15. RECORDS OF DECISIONS TO BE KEPT

- 15.1 The directors must ensure that the company keeps a record, in writing, for at least 10 years from the date of the decision recorded, of every unanimous or majority decision taken by the directors.
- 15.2 Where decisions of directors are taken by electronic means, such decisions shall be recorded by the directors in a form that enable the directors to retain a copy of such decisions.

16. DIRECTORS' DISCRETION TO MAKE FURTHER RULES

Subject to the articles, the directors may make any rule which they think fit about how they take decisions, and about how such rules are to be recorded or communicated to directors.

APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTORS

17. NUMBER OF DIRECTORS

The number of directors shall not be subject to any maximum but shall not be less than two (2).

18. METHODS OF APPOINTING DIRECTORS

- 18.1 The shareholders may at any time and from time to time by notice in writing to the Company appoint one or more persons to be a director or directors of the Company and to remove any director or directors from office (whether or not appointed pursuant to this Article 18.1).
- 18.2 Any appointment of a director pursuant to Article 18.1 shall be preceded by an open recruitment process that seeks to secure a diverse board membership with appropriate stakeholder engagement applied to the recruitment process for new appointments.
- 18.3 No person shall be appointed a director at any general meeting unless:
- 18.3.1 not less than 20 nor more than 35 clear days before the date appointed for the general meeting, notice signed by a shareholder qualified to vote at the general meeting has been given to the company of the intention to propose such person for appointment, together with notice signed by such person of his willingness to be appointed.
- 18.4 Without prejudice to the Companies Act 2006, the shareholder shall approve the entering by the company into any service contract with, or contract for services for, any directors of the company or any person connected with them or any senior employee or vary in any material respect any existing service contract with, or contract for services for, any of their respective directors or any person connected with them or any senior employee. For this purpose "senior employee" means an employee or consultant whose total benefits exceed or might exceed £60,000 per annum.

19. TERMINATION OF DIRECTOR'S APPOINTMENT

- 19.1 Without prejudice to article 18.1, a person ceases to be a director as soon as:
- 19.1.1 that person ceases to be a director by virtue of any provision of the Companies Act 2006 or is prohibited from being a director by law;
- 19.1.2 a bankruptcy order is made against that person;
- 19.1.3 a composition is made with that person's creditors generally in satisfaction of that person's debts;
- 19.1.4 a registered medical practitioner with appropriate qualifications and experience gives a written opinion to the company stating that that person has become physically or mentally incapable of acting as a director and, on the balance of probabilities, is likely to remain so for more than three months;
- 19.1.5 [paragraph omitted pursuant to The Mental Health (Discrimination) Act 2013]
- 19.1.6 notification is received by the company from the director that the director is resigning from office, and such resignation has taken effect in accordance with its terms; or
- 19.1.7 notification of the director's removal is received by the company from a shareholder pursuant to Article 18.1.

20. DIRECTORS' REMUNERATION

- 20.1 Directors may undertake any services for the company that the directors decide.
- 20.2 Directors are entitled to such remuneration as the directors determine:
- 20.2.1 for their services to the company as directors; and

- 20.2.2 for any other service which they undertake for the company.
- 20.3 Subject to the articles, a director's remuneration may:
 - 20.3.1 take any form; and
 - 20.3.2 include any arrangements in connection with the payment of a pension, allowance or gratuity, or any death, sickness or disability benefits, to or in respect of that director.
- 20.4 Unless the directors decide otherwise, directors' remuneration accrues from day to day.
- 20.5 Unless the directors decide otherwise, directors are not accountable to the company for any remuneration which they receive as directors or other officers or employees of the company's subsidiaries or of any other body corporate in which the company is interested.

21. EXPENSES

- 21.1 The company may pay any reasonable expenses which the directors and the secretary properly incur in connection with their attendance at:
 - 21.1.1 meetings of directors or committees of directors;
 - 21.1.2 general meetings; or
 - 21.1.3 separate meetings of the holders of any class of shares or of debentures of the company,
- or otherwise in connection with the exercise of their powers and the discharge of their responsibilities in relation to the company.

22. SECRETARY

The directors may appoint any person who is willing to act as the secretary for such term, at such remuneration and upon such conditions as they may think fit and from time to time remove such person and appoint a replacement, in each case by a decision of the directors.

PART 3

SHARES AND DISTRIBUTIONS

23. COMPANY'S LIEN OVER SHARES

- 23.1 The company has a lien (the "company's lien") over every share, whether or not fully paid, which is registered in the name of any person indebted or under any liability to the company, whether he is the sole registered holder of the share or one of several joint holders, for all monies payable by him (either alone or jointly with any other person) to the company, whether payable immediately or at some time in the future.
- 23.2 The company's lien over a share:
 - 23.2.1 takes priority over any third party's interest in that share; and
 - 23.2.2 extends to any dividend or other money payable by the company in respect of that share and (if the lien is enforced and the share is sold by the company) the proceeds of sale of that share.
- 23.3 The directors may at any time decide that a share which is or would otherwise be subject to the company's lien shall not be subject to it, either wholly or in part.

24. ENFORCEMENT OF THE COMPANY'S LIEN

- 24.1 Subject to the provisions of this article, if:
- 24.1.1 a lien enforcement notice has been given in respect of a share; and
 - 24.1.2 the person to whom the notice was given has failed to comply with it,
- the company may sell that share in such manner as the directors decide.
- 24.2 A lien enforcement notice:
- 24.2.1 may only be given in respect of a share which is subject to the company's lien, in respect of which a sum is payable and the due date for payment of that sum has passed;
 - 24.2.2 must specify the share concerned;
 - 24.2.3 must require payment of the sum within 14 clear days of the notice (that is, excluding the date on which the notice is given and the date on which that 14 day period expires);
 - 24.2.4 must be addressed either to the holder of the share or to a transmittee of that holder; and
 - 24.2.5 must state the company's intention to sell the share if the notice is not complied with.
- 24.3 Where shares are sold under this article:
- 24.3.1 the directors may authorise any person to execute an instrument of transfer of the shares to the purchaser or to a person nominated by the purchaser; and
 - 24.3.2 the transferee is not bound to see to the application of the consideration and the transferee's title is not affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the process leading to the sale.
- 24.4 The net proceeds of any such sale (after payment of the costs of sale and any other costs of enforcing the lien) must be applied:
- 24.4.1 first, in payment of so much of the sum for which the lien exists as was payable at the date of the lien enforcement notice; and
 - 24.4.2 second, to the person entitled to the shares at the date of the sale, but only after the certificate for the shares sold has been surrendered to the company for cancellation, or an indemnity in a form reasonably satisfactory to the directors has been given for any lost certificates, and subject to a lien equivalent to the company's lien for any money payable (whether payable immediately or at some time in the future) as existed upon the shares before the sale in respect of all shares registered in the name of such person (whether as the sole registered holder or as one of several joint holders) after the date of the lien enforcement notice.
- 24.5 A statutory declaration by a director or the company secretary that the declarant is a director or the company secretary and that a share has been sold to satisfy the company's lien on a specified date:
- 24.5.1 is conclusive evidence of the facts stated in it as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share; and
 - 24.5.2 subject to compliance with any other formalities of transfer required by the articles or by law, constitutes a good title to the share.

25. CALL NOTICES

- 25.1 Subject to the articles and the terms on which shares are allotted, the directors may send a notice (a "call notice") to a shareholder requiring the shareholder to pay the company a specified sum of money (a "call") which is payable to the company at the date when the directors decide to send the call notice.
- 25.2 A call notice:
- 25.2.1 may not require a shareholder to pay a call which exceeds the total amount of his indebtedness or liability to the company;
 - 25.2.2 must state when and how any call to which it relates is to be paid; and
 - 25.2.3 may permit or require the call to be made in instalments.
- 25.3 A shareholder must comply with the requirements of a call notice, but no shareholder is obliged to pay any call before 14 clear days (that is, excluding the date on which the notice is given and the date on which that 14 day period expires) have passed since the notice was sent.
- 25.4 Before the company has received any call due under a call notice the directors may:
- 25.4.1 revoke it wholly or in part; or
 - 25.4.2 specify a later time for payment than is specified in the notice,
- by a further notice in writing to the shareholder in respect of whose shares the call is made.
26. LIABILITY TO PAY CALLS
- 26.1 Liability to pay a call is not extinguished or transferred by transferring the shares in respect of which it is required to be paid.
- 26.2 Joint holders of a share are jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect of that share.
- 26.3 Subject to the terms on which shares are allotted, the directors may, when issuing shares, provide that call notices sent to the holders of those shares may require them:
- 26.3.1 to pay calls which are not the same; or
 - 26.3.2 to pay calls at different times.
27. WHEN CALL NOTICE NEED NOT BE ISSUED
- 27.1 A call notice need not be issued in respect of sums which are specified, in the terms on which a share is issued, as being payable to the company in respect of that share:
- 27.1.1 on allotment;
 - 27.1.2 on the occurrence of a particular event; or
 - 27.1.3 on a date fixed by or in accordance with the terms of issue.
- 27.2 But if the due date for payment of such a sum has passed and it has not been paid, the holder of the share concerned is treated in all respects as having failed to comply with a call notice in respect of that sum, and is liable to the same consequences as regards the payment of interest and forfeiture.
28. FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH CALL NOTICE: AUTOMATIC CONSEQUENCES
- 28.1 If a person is liable to pay a call and fails to do so by the call payment date:
- 28.1.1 the directors may issue a notice of intended forfeiture to that person; and 28.1.2 until the call is paid, that person must pay the company interest on the call from the call payment date at the relevant rate.

28.2 For the purposes of this article:

28.2.1 the "call payment date" is the time when the call notice states that a call is payable, unless the directors give a notice specifying a later date, in which case the "call payment date" is that later date; and

28.2.2 the "relevant rate" is:

(a) the rate fixed by the terms on which the share in respect of which the call is due was allotted;

(b) such other rate as was fixed in the call notice which required payment of the call, or has otherwise been determined by the directors; or

(c) if no rate is fixed in either of these ways, 5 per cent per annum.

28.3 The relevant rate must not exceed by more than 5 percentage points the base lending rate most recently set by the Monetary Policy Committee of the Bank of England in connection with its responsibilities under Part 2 of the Bank of England Act 1998.

28.4 The directors may waive any obligation to pay interest on a call wholly or in part.

29. NOTICE OF INTENDED FORFEITURE

29.1 A notice of intended forfeiture:

29.1.1 may be sent in respect of any share in respect of which a call has not been paid as required by a call notice;

29.1.2 must be sent to the holder of that share (or all the joint holders of that share) or to a transmittee of that holder;

29.1.3 must require payment of the call and any accrued interest and all expenses that may have been incurred by the company by reason of such non-payment by a date which is not less than 14 clear days after the date of the notice (that is, excluding the date on which the notice is given and the date on which that 14 day period expires);

29.1.4 must state how the payment is to be made; and 29.1.5 must state that, if the notice is not complied with, the shares in respect of which the call is payable will be liable to be forfeited.

30. DIRECTORS' POWER TO FORFEIT SHARES

If a notice of intended forfeiture is not complied with before the date by which payment of the call is required in the notice of intended forfeiture, the directors may decide that any share in respect of which it was given is forfeited, and the forfeiture is to include all dividends or other moneys payable in respect of the forfeited shares and not paid before the forfeiture.

31. EFFECT OF FORFEITURE

31.1 Subject to the articles, the forfeiture of a share extinguishes:

31.1.1 all interests in that share, and all claims and demands against the company in respect of it; and

- 31.1.2 all other rights and liabilities incidental to the share as between the person whose share it was prior to the forfeiture and the company.
- 31.2 Any share which is forfeited in accordance with the articles:
 - 31.2.1 is deemed to have been forfeited when the directors decide that it is forfeited;
 - 31.2.2 is deemed to be the property of the company; and
 - 31.2.3 may be sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of as the directors think fit.
- 31.3 If a person's shares have been forfeited:
 - 31.3.1 the company must send that person notice that forfeiture has occurred and record it in the register of shareholders;
 - 31.3.2 that person ceases to be a shareholder in respect of those shares;
 - 31.3.3 that person must surrender the certificate for the shares forfeited to the company for cancellation;
 - 31.3.4 that person remains liable to the company for all sums payable by that person under the articles at the date of forfeiture in respect of those shares, including any interest (whether accrued before or after the date of forfeiture); and
 - 31.3.5 the directors may waive payment of such sums wholly or in part or enforce payment without any allowance for the value of the shares at the time of forfeiture or for any consideration received on their disposal.
- 31.4 At any time before the company disposes of a forfeited share, the directors may decide to cancel the forfeiture on payment of all calls and interest and expenses due in respect of it and on such other terms as they think fit.

32. PROCEDURE FOLLOWING FORFEITURE

- 32.1 If a forfeited share is to be disposed of by being transferred, the company may receive the consideration for the transfer and the directors may authorise any person to execute the instrument of transfer.
- 32.2 A statutory declaration by a director or the company secretary that the declarant is a director or the company secretary and that a share has been forfeited on a specified date:
 - 32.2.1 is conclusive evidence of the facts stated in it as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share; and
 - 32.2.2 subject to compliance with any other formalities of transfer required by the articles or by law, constitutes a good title to the share.
- 32.3 A person to whom a forfeited share is transferred is not bound to see to the application of the consideration (if any) nor is that person's title to the share affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the process leading to the forfeiture or transfer of the share.
- 32.4 If the company sells a forfeited share, the person who held it prior to its forfeiture is entitled to receive from the company the proceeds of such sale, net of any commission, and excluding any amount which:
 - 32.4.1 was, or would have become, payable; and 32.4.2 had not, when that share was forfeited, been paid by that person in respect of that share, but no interest is payable to such a person in respect of such proceeds and the Company is not required to account for any money earned on them.

33. SURRENDER OF SHARES

33.1 A shareholder may surrender any share:

33.1.1 in respect of which the directors may issue a notice of intended forfeiture;

33.1.2 which the directors may forfeit; or

33.1.3 which has been forfeited.

33.2 The directors may accept the surrender of any such share.

33.3 The effect of surrender on a share is the same as the effect of forfeiture on that share.

33.4 A share which has been surrendered may be dealt with in the same way as a share which has been forfeited.

34. POWERS TO ISSUE DIFFERENT CLASSES OF SHARE

34.1 Subject to the articles, but without prejudice to the rights attached to any existing share, the company may issue shares with such rights or restrictions as may be determined by ordinary resolution.

34.2 The company may issue shares which are to be redeemed, or are liable to be redeemed at the option of the company or the holder, and the directors may determine the terms, conditions and manner of redemption of any such shares.

35. COMPANY NOT BOUND BY LESS THAN ABSOLUTE INTERESTS

Except as required by law, no person is to be recognised by the company as holding any share upon any trust, and except as otherwise required by law or the articles, the company is not in any way to be bound by or recognise any interest in a share other than the holder's absolute ownership of it and all the rights attaching to it.

36. SHARE CERTIFICATES

36.1 The company must issue each shareholder, free of charge, with one or more certificates in respect of the shares which that shareholder holds.

36.2 Every certificate must specify:

36.2.1 in respect of how many shares, of what class, it is issued;

36.2.2 the nominal value of those shares; and

36.2.3 any distinguishing numbers assigned to them.

36.3 No certificate may be issued in respect of shares of more than one class.

36.4 If more than one person holds a share, only one certificate may be issued in respect of it.

36.5 Certificates must:

36.5.1 have affixed to them the company's common seal; or

36.5.2 be otherwise executed in accordance with the Companies Acts.

37. REPLACEMENT SHARE CERTIFICATES

37.1 If a certificate issued in respect of a shareholder's shares is:

37.1.1 damaged or defaced; or

37.1.2 said to be lost, stolen or destroyed, that shareholder is entitled to be issued with a replacement certificate in respect of the same shares.

37.2 A shareholder exercising the right to be issued with such a replacement certificate:

37.2.1 may at the same time exercise the right to be issued with a single certificate or separate certificates;

37.2.2 must return the certificate which is to be replaced to the company if it is damaged or defaced; and

37.2.3 must comply with such conditions as to evidence and indemnity as the directors decide.

38. DIRECTORS' POWER TO ISSUE SHARES AND SHARE TRANSFERS

38.1 Unless otherwise stated in these Articles, the directors shall have no authority to:

38.1.1 issue shares in the company or grant any options or other rights to subscribe for shares in the company to any person;

38.1.2 create, consolidate, sub-divide, convert, cancel, reduce, purchase or redeem the share capital in the company.

38.2 Unless otherwise agreed by the directors and subject to article 4.1, transfers of shares shall not be permitted.

38.3 In respect of a permitted transfer of shares pursuant to article 37.2:

38.3.1 the shares may be transferred by means of an instrument of transfer in any usual form or any other form approved by the directors, which is executed by or on behalf of the transferor;

38.3.2 no fee may be charged for registering any instrument of transfer or other document relating to or affecting the title to any share;

38.3.3 the company may retain any instrument of transfer which is registered;

38.3.4 the transferor remains the holder of a share until the transferee's name is entered in the register of members as holder of it.

38.4 The directors may refuse to register the transfer of a share, and if they do so, the instrument of transfer must be returned to the transferee with the notice of refusal unless they suspect that the proposed transfer may be fraudulent.

38.5 Without limitation, the powers of the directors under section 550 of the Companies Act 2006 are limited accordingly.

DIVIDENDS AND OTHER DISTRIBUTIONS

39. PROCEDURE FOR DECLARING DIVIDENDS

39.1 The company may by ordinary resolution declare dividends, and the directors may decide to pay interim dividends.

- 39.2 A dividend must not be declared unless the directors have made a recommendation as to its amount. Such a dividend must not exceed the amount recommended by the directors.
- 39.3 No dividend may be declared or paid unless it is in accordance with a shareholders' respective rights.
- 39.4 Except as otherwise provided by the rights attached to shares, all dividends shall be declared and paid according to the amounts paid up on the shares on which the dividend is paid. All dividends shall be apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid up on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid. However, if any share is issued on terms providing that it shall rank for dividend as from a particular date, that share shall rank for dividend accordingly.
- 39.5 If the company's share capital is divided into different classes, no dividend may be paid on shares carrying deferred or non-preferred rights if, at the time of payment, any preferential dividend is in arrear.
- 39.6 The directors may pay at intervals any dividend payable at a fixed rate if it appears to them that the profits available for distribution justify the payment.
- 39.7 If the directors act in good faith, they do not incur any liability to the holders of shares conferring preferred rights for any loss they may suffer by the lawful payment of an interim dividend on shares with deferred or non-preferred rights.

40. PAYMENT OF DIVIDENDS AND OTHER DISTRIBUTIONS

- 40.1 Where a dividend or other sum which is a distribution is payable in respect of a share, it must be paid by one or more of the following means:
- 40.1.1 transfer to a bank or building society account specified by the distribution recipient, either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide;
 - 40.1.2 sending a cheque made payable to the distribution recipient by post to the distribution recipient at the distribution recipient's registered address (if the distribution recipient is a holder of the share), or (in any other case) to an address specified by the distribution recipient, either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide;
 - 40.1.3 sending a cheque made payable to such person by post to such person at such address as the distribution recipient has specified, either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide; or
 - 40.1.4 any other means of payment as the directors agree with the distribution recipient, either in writing or by such other means as the directors decide.
- 40.2 In the articles, "the distribution recipient" means, in respect of a share in respect of which a dividend or other sum is payable:
- 40.2.1 the holder of the share; or
 - 40.2.2 if the share has two or more joint holders, whichever of them is named first in the register of members; or
 - 40.2.3 if the holder is no longer entitled to the share by reason of insolvency, or otherwise by operation of law, the transmittee.

41. NO INTEREST ON DISTRIBUTIONS

- 41.1 The company may not pay interest on any dividend or other sum payable in respect of a share unless otherwise provided by:

- 41.1.1 the terms on which the share was issued; or
- 41.1.2 the provisions of another agreement between the holder of that share and the company.

42. UNCLAIMED DISTRIBUTIONS

- 42.1 All dividends or other sums which are:
 - 42.1.1 payable in respect of shares; and
 - 42.1.2 unclaimed after having been declared or become payable;may be invested or otherwise made use of by the directors for the benefit of the company until claimed.
- 42.2 The payment of any such dividend or other sum into a separate account does not make the company a trustee in respect of it.
- 42.3 If:
 - 42.3.1 twelve years have passed from the date on which a dividend or other sum became due for payment; and
 - 42.3.2 the distribution recipient has not claimed it,the distribution recipient is no longer entitled to that dividend or other sum and it ceases to remain owing by the company.

43. NON-CASH DISTRIBUTIONS

- 43.1 Subject to the terms of issue of the share in question, the company may, by ordinary resolution on the recommendation of the directors, decide to pay all or part of a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share by transferring non-cash assets of equivalent value (including, without limitation, shares or other securities in any company).
- 43.2 For the purposes of paying a non-cash distribution, the directors may make whatever arrangements they think fit, including, where any difficulty arises regarding the distribution:
 - 43.2.1 fixing the value of any assets;
 - 43.2.2 paying cash to any distribution recipient on the basis of that value in order to adjust the rights of recipients; and
 - 43.2.3 vesting any assets in trustees.

44. WAIVER OF DISTRIBUTIONS

- 44.1 Distribution recipients may waive their entitlement to a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share by giving the company notice in writing by way of a deed to that effect, but if:
 - 44.1.1 the share has more than one holder; or
 - 44.1.2 more than one person is entitled to the share, whether by reason of the insolvency of one or more joint holders, or otherwise,the notice is not effective unless it is expressed to be given, and signed, by all the holders or persons otherwise entitled to the share.

CAPITALISATION OF PROFITS

45. AUTHORITY TO CAPITALISE AND APPROPRIATION OF CAPITALISED SUMS

- 45.1 Subject to the articles, the directors may, if they are so authorised by an ordinary resolution:
- 45.1.1 decide to capitalise any profits of the company (whether or not they are available for distribution) which are not required for paying a preferential dividend, or any sum standing to the credit of the company's share premium account or capital redemption reserve; and
 - 45.1.2 appropriate any sum which they so decide to capitalise (a "capitalised sum") to the persons who would have been entitled to it if it were distributed by way of dividend (the "persons entitled") and in the same proportions and apply such sum on their behalf either towards paying up the amounts, if any, for the time being unpaid on any shares held by them respectively.
- 45.2 Capitalised sums must be applied:
- 45.2.1 on behalf of the persons entitled; and
 - 45.2.2 in the same proportions as a dividend would have been distributed to them.
- 45.3 Any capitalised sum may be applied in paying up new shares of a nominal amount equal to the capitalised sum which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct.
- 45.4 A capitalised sum which was appropriated from profits available for distribution may be applied in paying up new debentures of the company which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct.
- 45.5 Subject to the articles the directors may:
- 45.5.1 apply capitalised sums in accordance with paragraphs 45.3 and 45.4 partly in one way and partly in another;
 - 45.5.2 make such arrangements as they think fit to deal with shares or debentures becoming distributable in fractions under this article (including the issuing of fractional certificates or the making of cash payments); and
 - 45.5.3 authorise any person to enter into an agreement with the company on behalf of all the persons entitled which is binding on them in respect of the allotment of shares and debentures to them under this article.

- 48.3 The directors may make whatever arrangements they consider appropriate to enable those attending a general meeting to exercise their rights to speak or vote at it.
- 48.4 In determining attendance at a general meeting, it is immaterial whether any two or more members attending it are in the same place as each other.
- 48.5 Two or more persons who are not in the same place as each other attend a general meeting if their circumstances are such that if they have (or were to have) rights to speak and vote at that meeting, they are (or would be) able to exercise them.

49. QUORUM FOR GENERAL MEETINGS

- 49.1 Save in the case where the company has a single shareholder, 2 persons entitled to vote on the business to be transacted at the meeting, each being a shareholder or a

51. ATTENDANCE AND SPEAKING BY DIRECTORS AND NON-SHAREHOLDERS

51.1 Directors may attend and speak at general meetings, whether or not they are shareholders.

51.2.2 otherwise entitled to exercise the rights of shareholders in relation to general meetings, to attend and speak at a general meeting.

52. ADJOURNMENT

52.1 If the persons attending a general meeting within half an hour of the time at which the meeting was due to start do not constitute a quorum, or if during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the chairman of the meeting must adjourn it.

52.2 The chairman of the meeting may adjourn a general meeting at which a quorum is present if:

- 52.5.1 to the same persons to whom notice of the company's general meetings is required to be given; and
 - 52.5.2 containing the same information which such notice is required to contain.
- 52.6 If at an adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed, then, provided that the shareholders present hold at least 75% in nominal value of the ordinary shares of the company in issue, any resolution agreed to by such members shall be valid and effectual as if it had been passed unanimously at a general meeting of the company duly convened and held.
- 52.7 No business may be transacted at an adjourned general meeting which could not properly have been transacted at the meeting if the adjournment had not taken place.

54. ERRORS AND DISPUTES

- 54.1 No objection may be raised to the qualification of any person voting at a general meeting except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting is valid.

- 55.1 A poll on a resolution may be demanded:

- 55.1.1 in advance of the general meeting at which that resolution is to be put to the vote; or
