3 Transactions with directors

The directors of the company (except Mr. G L W John), and all shareholders, are owners of the individual properties to which the company manages. The turnover of the company, in its entirety, represents contributions paid by all members, on a mutual basis, in line with the general maintenance agreement administered to all members.

Mr. G L W John has an interest in Godfrey John & Partners, with whom the company trades. Management charges are levied to the company from Godfrey John & Partners in the sum of £1,058 for the year, (1999 : £1,058). These charges represent arms length transactions at normal market rates.
