Warning to all applicants

It is an offence to knowingly or recklessly provide false or misleading information on this application.

You are advised to read section 4 and to consult the guidance available from Companies House before completing this form. If in doubt, seek professional advice.

I/We as director(s)/the majority of directors apply for this company to be struck off the Register and declare that none of the circumstances described in section 1004 or 1005 of the Companies Act 2006 (being circumstances in which the directors would otherwise be prohibited under those sections from making an application) exists in relation to the company.

This form must be signed by the sole director if only 1, by both if there are 2, or by the majority if there are more than 2.

① Please read the guidance on our website www.companieshouse.gov.uk or section 1003 or 1004 of the Companies Act 2006 for circumstances under which an application may not be made.

Please note that on dissolution all property and rights etc will be passed to the Crown.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for the integrity of the financial system and for the ability to detect and prevent fraud. The text also mentions the need for regular audits and the role of independent auditors in ensuring the reliability of the data.

2. The second part of the document focuses on the challenges faced by organizations in implementing effective internal controls. It highlights the complexity of modern business environments and the need for a robust framework of controls to manage risks. The text suggests that organizations should adopt a risk-based approach to internal control design and implementation, focusing on the most significant risks to the organization's objectives.

3. The third part of the document discusses the importance of transparency and accountability in financial reporting. It notes that stakeholders, including investors, creditors, and the public, rely on the information provided in financial statements to make informed decisions. The text stresses the need for organizations to provide clear, concise, and reliable information, and to be held accountable for the accuracy of their reports.

4. The fourth part of the document addresses the role of technology in enhancing financial reporting and internal control systems. It discusses how digital tools and automation can improve the efficiency and accuracy of data collection and processing. The text also mentions the importance of cybersecurity measures to protect sensitive financial information from unauthorized access and data breaches.

5. The fifth part of the document discusses the importance of ongoing monitoring and evaluation of internal control systems. It notes that internal controls are not static and must be regularly reviewed and updated to reflect changes in the organization's operations and the external environment. The text suggests that organizations should establish a formal process for monitoring and evaluating their internal controls, and should report on the results of these activities to the relevant stakeholders.

6. The sixth part of the document discusses the importance of training and education for employees involved in financial reporting and internal control. It notes that well-trained and educated staff are essential for the effective implementation of internal control systems. The text suggests that organizations should provide regular training and education to their employees, focusing on the latest best practices and regulatory requirements.

What to do next

Notify all parties

Please ensure that you send copies of this application to all notifiable parties e.g. creditors, employees, shareholders, pension managers or trustees and other directors of the company within 7 days from the day on which the application is made

Please also send copies to anyone who later becomes a notifiable party within 7 days of this taking place. This applies from the day of application and before the day on which the application is finally dealt with or withdrawn. Please check the guidance which contain a full list of those who must be notified. Failure to notify interested parties is an offence. It is advisable to obtain and retain some proof of delivery or posting of copies to notifiable parties

Withdrawal of striking off application by a company

If the company ceases to be eligible for striking off at any time after the application is made, and before the application is finally dealt with, as specified in section 1009 of the Companies Act 2006, then the application must be withdrawn using form DS02 'Withdrawal of striking off application by a company' available from our website www.companieshouse.gov.uk
