Statement of capital (Prescribed particulars of rights attached to shares)

Class of share

Ordinary Shares

Prescribed particulars

The prescribed particulars of the rights attached to the shares are summarised as follows:

An ordinary shareholder may be given notice, attend, speak and vote at general meetings of the Company. At a general meeting on a show of hands each member shall have one vote, and on a poll every member shall have one vote for every share of which he is the holder.

The Ordinary shareholders are entitled to receive dividend payments, and any interim dividend payment, if declared by the Directors of the Company.

All dividends shall be declared and paid according to the amounts paid up on the shares on which the dividend is paid. All dividends shall be apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid up on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid; but, if any share is issued on terms providing that it shall rank for dividend as from a particular date, that share shall rank for dividend accordingly.

No dividend or other moneys payable in respect of a share shall bear interest against the company unless otherwise provided by the rights attached to the share.

The ordinary shareholders are entitled to receive any distribution of capital upon a return of capital.

Each of the prescribed rights summarised above being as more particulary set out in the articles.
