NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31ST JANUARY 2020

1. STATUTORY INFORMATION

A T P Decorations Limited is a private company, limited by shares, registered in England and Wales. The company's registered number and registered office address can be found on the Company Information page.

2. STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Financial Reporting Standard 102 "The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland" including the provisions of Section 1A "Small Entities" and the Companies Act 2006.

3. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of preparing the financial statements

The financial statements are prepared on a going concern basis and under the historical cost convention.

Significant judgements and estimates

No significant judgements or estimates have had to be made by the directors in preparing these financial statements.

Revenue

Revenue represents the total invoice value, including value added tax, trade discounts and all other losses of sales made during the year.

Revenue Recognition

Revenue is recognised in the income statement at the date the service is provided.

Property plant and equipment

Depreciation is provided at the following annual rates in order to write off each asset over its estimated useful life.

Plant and machinery etc	- 33% on reducing balance, 25% on reducing balance, 20% on reducing balance and 15% on reducing balance
-------------------------	---

Financial instruments

Basic financial instruments are recognised at amortised cost, except for investments in non-convertible preference and non-puttable ordinary shares which are measured at fair value, with changes recognised in profit or loss. Derivative financial instruments are initially recorded at cost and thereafter at fair value with changes recognised in profit or loss.

Tax

Tax for the year comprises current and deferred tax. Tax is recognised in the Income Statement, except to the extent that it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity.

Current or deferred tax assets and liabilities are not discounted.

Current tax is recognised at the amount of tax payable using the tax rates and laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the statement of financial position date.

3. ACCOUNTING POLICIES - continuedDeferred tax

Deferred tax is recognised in respect of all material timing differences that have originated but not reversed at the statement of financial position date.

Timing differences arise from the inclusion of income and expenses in tax assessments in periods different from those in which they are recognised in financial statements. Deferred tax is measured using tax rates and laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the year end and that are expected to apply to the reversal of the timing difference.

Unrelieved tax losses and other deferred tax assets are recognised only to the extent that it is probable that they will be recovered against the reversal of deferred tax liabilities or other future taxable profits.

Going concern

The directors have assessed the Balance sheet and likely future cash flows at the date of approving these financial statements. During the year, the rapid spreading of COVID-19 has become a significant emerging risk to the global economy. The directors continue to monitor the impact of the virus on the business as more information about the pandemic emerges. The directors are confident that the company has sufficient funds available to meet liabilities as they fall due within the next 12 months; however the directors acknowledge that the position is changing day by day which means forecasting is difficult. Taking this into account, even after the directors response to the COVID-19 outbreak, there remains a material uncertainty that may cast significant doubt on the entity's ability to continue as a going concern.

4. EMPLOYEES AND DIRECTORS

The average number of employees during the year was 4 (2019 - 4) .
