DIRECTORS

DIRECTORS' POWERS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

3 Directors' general authority

- 3.1 Subject to the provisions of these articles, the directors are responsible for the management of the Company's business, for which purpose they may exercise all the powers of the Company.

4 Shareholders' reserve power

- 4.1 The A Shareholders may, by special resolution, direct the directors to take, or refrain from taking, specified action.
- 4.2 No such special resolution invalidates anything which the directors have done before the passing of the resolution.

5 Directors may delegate

- 5.1 The directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under these articles
- (a) to such person or committee,
 - (b) by such means (including by power of attorney),
 - (c) to such an extent,
 - (d) in relation to such matters or territories, and
 - (e) on such terms and conditions,
- as they think fit.
- 5.2 If the directors so specify, any such delegation may authorise further delegation of the directors' powers by any person to whom they are delegated.
- 5.3 The directors may revoke any delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions.
- ##### 6 Committees
- 6.1 Committees to which the directors delegate any of their powers must follow procedures which are based as far as they are applicable on those provisions of these articles which govern the taking of decisions by directors.
- 6.2 The directors may make rules of procedure for all or any committees, which prevail over rules derived from these articles if they are not consistent with them.
- 6.3 Any A Shareholder who has appointed a director pursuant to article 20.1 shall be entitled at any time to require the appointment of such director to any committee to which the directors delegate any of their powers.

ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

7 Appointment and removal of alternates

- 7.1 Any director (the "appointor") may appoint as an alternate director any other director, or any other person approved by the directors, to
- (a) exercise that director's powers, and
 - (b) carry out that director's responsibilities
- in relation to the taking of decisions by the directors in the absence of the appointor.
- 7.2 Any appointment or removal of an alternate must be in writing signed by the appointor and delivered to the Company.
- 7.3 The notice must
- (a) identify the proposed alternate, and
 - (b) in the case of a notice of appointment, contain a statement signed by the proposed alternate that he is willing to act as the alternate of the director giving the notice.

8 Rights and responsibilities of alternate directors

- 8.1 An alternate director has the same rights, in relation to any directors' meeting, directors' written resolution or decision-making, as his appointor. An alternate director's rights may be exercised only in the absence of his appointor but, subject to articles 8.3 and 8.4, in the case of an alternate director who is also a director are in addition to any rights which the alternate has as a director in his own right.
- 8.2 Except as these articles specify otherwise, an alternate director
- (a) is deemed for all purposes to be a director,
 - (b) is liable for his own acts and omissions,
 - (c) is subject to the same restrictions as his appointor, and
 - (d) is not deemed to be the agent of his appointor.
- 8.3 Subject to article 8.4, an alternate director may be counted as participating for the purposes of determining whether a quorum is participating (but only if his appointor is not participating) However, no alternate may be counted as more than one director for the purposes of determining whether a quorum is participating.
- 8.4 An alternate director (in his capacity as such) shall be precluded from voting, counting in the quorum or attending any part of a directors' meeting if his appointor would have been so precluded.
- 8.5 An alternate director is not entitled to receive any remuneration from the Company for serving as an alternate director except such part of his appointor's remuneration as the appointor may direct by notice in writing to the Company.

9 Termination of alternate directorship

9.1 An alternate director's appointment as an alternate terminates

- (a) when his appointor revokes the appointment by notice in writing to the Company,
- (b) on the occurrence in relation to the alternate of any event which, if it occurred in relation to his appointor, would result in the termination of the appointor's appointment as a director,
- (c) on the death of his appointor, or
- (d) when his appointor's appointment as a director terminates.

DECISION-MAKING BY DIRECTORS

10 Directors to take decisions collectively

10.1 The general rule about decision-making by directors is that any decision of the directors must be a majority decision taken in one of the following ways

- (a) at a meeting of the directors,
- (b) by written resolution, copies of which have been signed by a majority of the eligible directors or to which a majority of the eligible directors have otherwise indicated agreement in writing, or
- (c) by a majority of the eligible directors indicating to each other, by any means, that they share a common view on a matter.

10.2 References in this article 10 to eligible directors are to directors who would have been entitled to vote on the matter had it been proposed as a resolution at a directors' meeting.

10.3 A decision may not be taken in accordance with article 10.1(b) or 10.1(c) if the eligible directors purporting to take the decision would not have formed a quorum at such a meeting.

10.4 If the Company has only one director, the general rule does not apply, meaning the director may take decisions without regard to any of the provisions of these articles relating to directors' decision-making (other than the rules about quorum in article 13).

11 Calling a directors' meeting

11.1 Any director may call a directors' meeting by giving notice of the meeting to the directors or by authorising the company secretary (if any) to give such notice.

11.2 Notice of any directors' meeting must indicate

- (a) its proposed date and time,
- (b) where it is to take place, and

- (c) if (at the time the notice is given) it is anticipated that directors participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting.

11.3 Notice of a directors' meeting must be given to each director, but need not be in writing.

11.4 Notice of a directors' meeting need not be given to directors who waive their entitlement to notice of that meeting, by giving notice to that effect to the Company either before or after the date on which the meeting is held. Where such notice is given after the meeting has been held, that does not affect the validity of the meeting, or of any business conducted at it.

12 Participation in directors' meetings

12.1 Directors participate in a directors' meeting, or part of a directors' meeting, when

- (a) the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with these articles, and
- (b) they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting.

12.2 In determining whether directors are participating in a directors' meeting, it is irrelevant where any director is or how they communicate with each other.

12.3 If all the directors participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is.

13 Quorum for directors' meetings

13.1 At a directors' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting.

13.2 The quorum at any directors' meeting shall be two. If only one director is entitled to be counted towards the quorum by reason of a conflict of interest or duties, then the quorum shall be one director, provided that such director may vote in favour of an agreement, arrangement, transaction or course of action provided only that it is on arm's length terms or in the best interests of the Company. If within half an hour of the time at which the meeting was to start a quorum is not present, the meeting shall be adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place, or to such other day and at such other time and place as the directors may decide, and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time at which the meeting was to start, the directors present shall be a quorum for the purpose only of calling a general meeting and adjourning the directors' meeting until immediately after that general meeting has been held.

13.3 If the total number of directors for the time being is less than any quorum required, the directors must not take any decision at a directors' meeting other than a decision

- (a) to appoint further directors, or
- (b) to call a general meeting (or circulate a written resolution) so as to enable the A Shareholders to appoint further directors.

14 Chairing of directors' meetings

- 14.1 The directors may appoint a director to chair their meetings.
- 14.2 The person so appointed for the time being is known as the chairman.
- 14.3 The directors may terminate the chairman's appointment at any time.
- 14.4 If the chairman is not participating in a directors' meeting within ten minutes of the time at which it was to start, the participating directors must appoint one of themselves to chair it.

15 Conflicts of interest

- 15.1 No director shall be entitled to vote on or count in the quorum for the purposes of any resolution concerning a matter in which he has directly or indirectly an interest or duty which is material and which conflicts with the interests of the Company. For the purposes of this article 15.1, in the case of any director appointed pursuant to article 20.1, the interests of the member which appointed him and of persons connected with such member shall be deemed to be interests of such director. Subject to article 15.2, such director shall still be entitled to receive notice of and attend and speak at any directors' meeting at which a resolution is proposed on which, by virtue of this article 15.1, such director is not entitled to vote. This article 15.1 shall not apply to any matter if all the directors have a conflict in respect of such matter.
- 15.2 A director shall not be entitled to attend and speak at the part of a directors' meeting at which it is proposed to discuss or vote on any matter upon which he is not entitled to vote by virtue of article 15.1 if the disclosure to such director (or to the member who appointed him) of the specific commercial terms being discussed or voted upon could compromise the Company's ability to secure the most favourable commercial deal or where the information or proposals to be discussed or voted upon at the meeting directly relate to a dispute between the Company and such member or director.
- 15.3 Subject to the Companies Acts, and provided he has complied with his duty (if any) to declare his interest in accordance with section 177 of the Companies Act 2006, a director shall not be accountable to the Company for any benefit which he derives from any transaction or arrangement with the Company or in which the Company is otherwise interested and no such transaction or arrangement shall be liable to be avoided on the ground of any such interest or benefit.
- 15.4 Subject to article 15.5, if a question arises at a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors as to the right of a director to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the chairman or other director chairing the meeting whose ruling in relation to any director other than himself is to be final and conclusive.
- 15.5 If any question as to the right to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) should arise in respect of the chairman or other director chairing the meeting pursuant to article 14.4, the question is to be decided by a decision of the directors at that meeting, for which purpose the chairman or such other director is not to be counted as participating in the meeting (or that part of the meeting) for voting purposes.
- 15.6 If the directors propose to authorise a director's conflict of interest in accordance with section 175 of the Companies Act 2006, the director in question and any other interested director shall not be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes.

- 15.7 When authorising a conflict of interest, the directors may attach conditions and limits to the authorisation, specify any particular rules of conduct to be followed in relation to the conflict and may relieve the director concerned from any obligation to communicate any confidential information relating to the conflict to the Company or to use it for the Company's benefit in circumstances where that confidential information is received by him in a capacity other than that of director or employee of the Company.

16 Records of decisions to be kept

- 16.1 The directors must ensure that the Company keeps a written record for at least 10 years from the date of the meeting recorded, of the minutes of all proceedings at each meeting of its directors.

17 Directors' discretion to make further rules

- 17.1 Subject to the provisions of these articles, the directors may make any rule which they think fit about how they take decisions, and about how such rules are to be recorded or communicated to directors.

- 18.1 Unless otherwise determined by ordinary resolution, the number of directors (other than alternate directors) shall not be less than two nor more than six.

19 Methods of appointing directors

- 19.1 Any person who is willing to act as a director, and is permitted by law to do so, may be appointed as a director

- (a) by ordinary resolution, or
- (b) by a decision of the directors.

- 19.2 If, as a result of death, the Company has no Shareholders and no directors, the personal representatives of the last Shareholder to have died have the right, by notice in writing, to appoint a person to be a director.

- 19.3 For the purposes of article 19.2, where two or more Shareholders die in circumstances rendering it uncertain who was the last to die, a younger Shareholder is deemed to have survived an older Shareholder.

20 Appointment and retirement of directors

- 20.1 Each A Shareholder holding Shares representing no less than 10% of the total number of A Shares in issue, shall be entitled to appoint one director and to remove such director and appoint another person to be a director in his place Any such appointment or removal of a director shall be effected by a notice in writing signed or approved by the appointing A Shareholder or on its behalf by a duly authorised representative and shall take effect, subject, in the case of an appointment, to the person to be appointed signing a consent to act, upon notification to the Company.

Subject to article 15.1 and to compliance with all his other duties as a director of the Company, any director appointed pursuant to this article 20.1 shall be entitled for the purpose of section 173 of the Companies Act 2006 to have regard to and promote the interests of the A Shareholder who appointed him when discharging his functions.

21 Termination of director's appointment

21.1 A person ceases to be a director as soon as

- (a) that person ceases to be a director by virtue of any provision of the Companies Act 2006 or is prohibited from being a director by law,
- (b) that person becomes Insolvent,
- (c) a registered medical practitioner who is treating, or has examined, that person gives a written opinion to the Company stating that that person has become physically or mentally incapable of acting as a director and may remain so for more than three months,
- (d) that person becomes Incapacitated,
- (e) the Company receives written notice from the director that he is resigning from office, and such resignation has taken effect in accordance with its terms, or
- (f) the Company receives written notice effecting the termination of that person's appointment in accordance with article 20.

22 Directors' remuneration

22.1 Directors may undertake any services for the Company that the directors decide. A director may hold any other office or place of profit under the Company, other than that of auditor, upon such terms as the directors may decide. Any director may act by himself or his firm in a professional capacity for the Company, other than as auditor, and he or his firm shall be entitled to remuneration for professional services as if he were not a director.

22.2 Directors are entitled to such remuneration as the directors determine

- (a) for their services to the Company as directors, and
- (b) for any other service which they undertake for the Company.

22.3 Subject to these articles, a director's remuneration may

- (a) take any form, and
- (b) include any arrangements in connection with the payment of a pension, allowance or gratuity, or any death, sickness or disability benefits, to or in respect of that director.

22.4 Unless the directors decide otherwise, directors' remuneration accrues from day to day.

22.5 Unless the directors decide otherwise, directors are not accountable to the Company for any remuneration which they receive as directors or other officers or employees of the Company's subsidiaries or of any other body corporate in which the Company is interested.

23 Directors' expenses

23.1 The Company will pay any reasonable expenses which the directors properly incur in connection with their attendance at

- (a) meetings of directors or committees of directors,
- (b) general meetings, or
- (c) separate meetings of the holders of any class of shares or of debentures of the Company, or otherwise in connection with the exercise of their powers and the discharge of their responsibilities in relation to the Company.

PART 3

SHARES AND DISTRIBUTIONS

PARTLY PAID SHARES

24 Company's lien over partly paid shares

24.1 The Company has a lien (the "Company's lien") over every share, whether fully paid or not, and over all shares registered in the name of any person whether he is the sole holder or a joint holder of those shares, for any part of

- (a) that share's nominal value,
- (b) any premium at which it was issued, and
- (c) for all monies owing to the Company from time to time by the holder or his estate either alone or jointly with another person, whether as a member or not and whether or not due for payment.

which has not been paid to the Company, and which is payable immediately or at some time in the future, whether or not a call notice has been sent in respect of it.

24.2 The Company's lien over a share

- (a) takes priority over any third party's interest in that share, and
- (b) extends to any dividend or other money payable by the Company in respect of that share and (if the lien is enforced and the share is sold by the Company) the proceeds of sale of that share.

24.3 The directors may at any time decide that a share which is or would otherwise be subject to the Company's lien shall not be subject to it, either wholly or in part.

25 Enforcement of the Company's lien

25.1 Subject to the provisions of this article 25, if

- (a) a lien enforcement notice has been given in respect of a share, and
- (b) the person to whom the notice was given has failed to comply with it, the Company may sell that share in such manner as the directors decide.

25.2 A lien enforcement notice

- (a) may be given only in respect of a share which is subject to the Company's lien, in respect of which a sum is payable and the due date for payment of that sum has passed,
- (b) must specify the share concerned,
- (c) must require payment of the sum payable within 14 days of the notice,
- (d) must be addressed either to the holder of the share or to a person entitled to it by reason of the holder's death, bankruptcy or otherwise, and
- (e) must state the Company's intention to sell the share if the notice is not complied with.

25.3 Where shares are sold under this article 25

- (a) the directors may authorise any person to execute a document of transfer of the shares to the purchaser or a person nominated by the purchaser, and
- (b) the transferee is not bound to see to the application of the consideration, and the transferee's title is not affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the process leading to the sale.

25.4 The net proceeds of any such sale (after payment of the costs of sale and any other costs of enforcing the lien) must be applied

- (a) first, in payment of so much of the sum for which the lien exists as was payable at the date of the lien enforcement notice,
- (b) second, to the person entitled to the shares immediately prior to the sale, but only after the certificate for the shares sold has been surrendered to the Company for cancellation or a suitable indemnity has been given for any lost certificate, and subject to a lien equivalent to the Company's lien over the shares before the sale for any money payable or which will become payable in respect of the shares after the date of the lien enforcement notice.

25.5 A written statement signed by a director that a share has been sold to satisfy the Company's lien on a specified date is conclusive evidence of the facts stated in it as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share.

26 Call notices

26.1 Subject to these articles and the terms on which shares are allotted, the directors may send a notice (a "call notice") to a member requiring the member to pay the Company a specified sum of money (a "call") which is payable in respect of shares which that member holds at the date when the directors send the call notice.

26.2 A call notice

- (a) may not require a member to pay a call which exceeds the total sum unpaid on that member's shares (whether as to the share's nominal value or any amount payable to the Company by way of premium),
- (b) must state when and how the call is to be paid, and
- (c) may permit or require the call to be paid by instalments.

26.3 A member must comply with the requirements of a call notice, but no member is obliged to pay any call before 14 days have passed since the notice was sent.

26.4 Before the Company has received any call due under a call notice, the directors may

- (a) revoke it wholly or in part, or
- (b) specify a later time for payment than is specified in the notice

by a further notice in writing to the member in respect of whose shares the call is made.

27 Liability to pay calls

27.1 Liability to pay a call is not extinguished or transferred by transferring the shares in respect of which it is required to be paid.

27.2 Joint holders of a share are jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect of that share.

27.3 Subject to the terms on which shares are allotted, the directors may, when issuing shares, provide that call notices sent to the holders of those shares may require them

- (a) on allotment,
- (b) on the occurrence of a particular event, or
- (c) on a date fixed by or in accordance with the terms of issue.

28.2 But if the due date for payment of such a sum has passed and it has not been paid, the holder of the share concerned is treated in all respects as having failed to comply with a call notice in respect of that sum, and is liable to the same consequences as regards the payment of interest and forfeiture.

29 Failure to comply with call notice. automatic consequences

29.1 If a person is liable to pay a call and fails to do so by the call payment date

- (a) the directors may issue a notice of intended forfeiture to that person, and
- (b) until the call is paid, that person must pay the Company interest on the call from the call payment date at the relevant rate.

29.2 For the purposes of this article 29

- (a) the "call payment date" is the time when the call notice states that a call is payable, or, in a case falling within article 28, means the due date for payment, unless the directors give a notice specifying a later date, in which case the "call payment date" is that later date, and
- (b) the "relevant rate" is
 - (i) the rate fixed by the terms on which the share in respect of which the call is due was allotted,
 - (ii) such other rate as was fixed in the call notice which required payment of the call, or has otherwise been determined by the directors, or
 - (iii) if no rate is fixed in either of these ways, 5 per cent per annum.

29.3 The relevant rate must not exceed by more than 5 percentage points the base lending rate most recently set by the Monetary Policy Committee of the Bank of England in connection with its responsibilities under Part 2 of the Bank of England Act 1998.

29.4 The directors may waive any obligation to pay interest on a call wholly or in part.

31 Directors' power to forfeit shares

32 Effect of forfeiture

32.1 Subject to these articles, the forfeiture of a share extinguishes

- (a) all interests in that share, and all claims and demands against the Company in respect of it, and
 - (b) all other rights and liabilities incidental to the share as between the person whose share it was prior to the forfeiture and the Company.
- 32.2 Any share which is forfeited in accordance with these articles

 - (d) that person remains liable to the Company for all sums payable by that person under these articles at the date of forfeiture in respect of those shares, including any interest (whether accrued before or after the date of forfeiture), and
 - (e) the directors may waive payment of such sums wholly or in part or enforce payment without any allowance for the value of the shares at the time of forfeiture or for any consideration received on their disposal.
- 32.4 At any time before the Company disposes of a forfeited share, the directors may decide to cancel the forfeiture on payment of all calls and interest due in respect of it and on such other terms as they think fit.

- 33.1 If a forfeited share is to be disposed of by being transferred, the Company may receive the consideration for the transfer and the directors may authorise any person to execute the document of transfer.
- 33.2 A written statement signed by a director that a share has been forfeited on a specified date is conclusive evidence of the facts stated in it as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share.
- 33.3 A person to whom a forfeited share is transferred is not bound to see to the application of the consideration (if any) nor is that person's title to the share affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the process leading to the forfeiture or transfer of the share.
- 33.4 If the Company sells a forfeited share, the person who held it prior to its forfeiture is entitled to receive from the Company the proceeds of such sale, net of any commission, and excluding any amount which

- (a) was, or would have become, payable, and
- (b) had not, when that share was forfeited, been paid

by that person in respect of that share, but no interest is payable to such a person in respect of such proceeds and the Company is not required to account for any money earned on them.

34.1 A member may surrender any share

- (a) in respect of which the directors may issue a notice of intended forfeiture, or
- (b) which the directors may forfeit.

34.2 The directors may accept the surrender of any such share, and a share which has been surrendered may be dealt with in the same way as a share which has been forfeited.

prior to and including the proposed date of completion of the transfer of shares which gives rise to the application of article 46.2 or 46.3, plus such further amount equal to any other consideration (in cash or otherwise) received or receivable per share by the Shareholder(s) who have transferred shares to the Buyer which, having regard to the substance of the transaction as a whole, can reasonably be regarded as forming part of the consideration paid or payable for such shares but, in the event that any member requests a determination of the Fair Value in accordance with article 47, shall mean the Fair Value (if higher).

- 46.2 If a person other than a member, either alone or together with a person or persons connected with it (and any person or persons acting in concert (within the meaning of the City Code on Takeovers and Mergers) with it or them), makes an offer or offers for Shares and receive(s) valid acceptances which would, on completion, result in such persons obtaining directly or indirectly Interests or rights which (when taken together with the existing Interests or rights (if any) of such person or persons) represent a Controlling Interest then, before the transfer is made, the proposed transferee(s) (the "Buyer") may serve notice (a "drag-along notice") upon all the Shareholders, other than the Buyer if it is a member and the holders of the Shares in respect of which it received such valid acceptances, requiring them to sell their Shares to the Buyer (at the same time and, subject to article 46.4, on the same terms and conditions for each member) at a price per share not less than the Transfer Price. The Buyer shall be entitled to stipulate in the drag-along notice that its purchase of such Shares is conditional upon completion of the transfer of the Shares which gives rise to the application of this article 46.2. Following service of a drag-along notice, each Shareholder to whom it was addressed shall be bound (in return for payment in full of the Transfer Price (or any higher price specified in the drag-along notice)) to transfer its Shares to the Buyer by delivering to the Buyer an executed stock transfer form and the share certificate(s) in respect of its Shares, provided that no Shareholder shall be obliged to do so unless the Buyer completes the purchase of the Shares which gives rise to the application of this article 46.2 and all of the Shares the subject of a drag-along notice simultaneously. If any Shareholder makes default in so doing the Company may receive and give a good discharge in respect of the Transfer Price on behalf of the Shareholder concerned and the directors shall authorise some person to transfer the Shares of such Shareholder to the Buyer. The directors shall, subject to the share transfer being duly stamped, enter the name of the Buyer (or its nominee) in the register of members as the holder of such Shares and after any such entry has been made the validity of the transaction shall not be questioned by any person.
- 46.3 If a person other than a member, either alone or together with a person or persons connected with it (and any person or persons acting in concert (within the meaning of the City Code on Takeovers and Mergers) with it or them), makes an offer or offers for Shares and receive(s) valid acceptances which would, on completion, result in such persons obtaining directly or indirectly Interests or rights which (when taken together with the existing Interests or rights (if any) of such person or persons) represent a Controlling Interest then, before the transfer is made (and save in circumstances where a drag-along notice is served in accordance with article 46.2), the proposed transferee(s) (the "Buyer") shall serve notice (a "tag-along notice") upon each Shareholder (other than the Buyer if it is a member and the holders of the Shares in respect of which it has received such valid acceptances), informing such Shareholder that it shall be entitled, by written notice to the Buyer within 10 Business Days of the date of service of the tag-along notice, to notify the Buyer that it requires the Buyer to purchase all of its Shares (at the same time and, subject to article 46.4, on the same terms and conditions as will apply in respect of the transfer of Shares which gives rise to the application of this article 46.3) at the Transfer Price. The Buyer shall not be obliged to purchase any Shares pursuant to this article 46.3 unless the transfer of Shares which gives rise to the application of this article 46.3 is completed simultaneously. Following service of a tag-along notice and notification by a Shareholder pursuant to this article 46.3, the Buyer shall be bound to purchase the Shares of such Shareholder for the Transfer Price following the delivery by such Shareholder of an executed stock transfer form and the share certificate(s) in relation to its Shares, provided that the Buyer shall not be obliged to do so unless the transfer of the Shares which gives rise to the application of this article 46.3 is completed simultaneously. The directors shall, subject to the share transfer being duly stamped, enter the name of the Buyer (or its nominee) in the register of members as the holder of such Shares and after any such entry has been made the validity of the transaction shall not be questioned by any person.

- 46.4 The terms of any transfer of Shares to be made pursuant to article 46.2 or 46.3 shall not require a member to give any warranties, representations, indemnities, covenants or other assurances in connection with the sale of shares to the Buyer other than warranties as to title to such member's own shares.

47 Determination of fair value

- 47.1 Within ten Business Days after a Compulsory Transfer Notice is served, the Company shall or (in default of the Company so doing) any member may instruct the auditor of the Company from time to time (the "Auditor") or (in the event that the Auditor is not willing to carry out the determination)

- (a) such firm of chartered accountants as the members may agree in writing, or
- (b) failing agreement on the identity of the firm of chartered accountants such firm of chartered accountants as may be appointed for this purpose on the application of the Company or any member by the President for the time being of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales,

(the "Independent Accountants") to determine the Fair Value in accordance with article 47.2. Within ten Business Days following the service of a drag-along notice or a tag-along notice pursuant to article 46.2 or 46.3 respectively, any member on whom such a notice is served may request a determination of the Fair Value and the Company shall or (in default of the Company so doing) that member may instruct the Auditor or Independent Accountants (as the case may be) to determine the Fair Value in accordance with article 47.2.

- 47.2 In determining the Fair Value, the Auditor or Independent Accountants (as the case may be) shall act on the following basis
- (a) they shall act as experts and not as arbitrators,
 - (b) their terms of reference shall be to determine an amount which in their opinion represents the fair market value of the Compulsory Transferor's shares or the shares the proposed sale of which gave rise to the application of article 46.2

or 46.3 (as the case may be), within 20 Business Days of their being instructed and they shall proceed on the basis that

- (i) there shall be no discount or premium by reason of the fact that the share in question may form part of a holding which represents a minority or majority interest in the Company,
 - (ii) they shall assume there is a willing buyer and a willing seller for the share in question on an arm's length basis,
 - (iii) they shall assume the sale is taking place on the date they were requested to determine the Fair Value,
 - (iv) they shall be entitled to take into account the fact that any dividend or other distribution has been declared in respect of the share in question but remains unpaid and to take into account any record date set by the Company to establish who is entitled to such dividend or distribution, and
 - (v) otherwise they may take into account such other factors as they deem relevant to a proper valuation of shares in the Company,
- (c) the Company shall promptly provide the Auditor or Independent Accountants (as the case may be) with all information which they reasonably require and the Auditor or Independent Accountants (as the case may be) shall be entitled (to the extent they consider it appropriate) to base their opinion on such information and on the accounting and other records of the Company (and any subsidiaries of the Company from time to time),
- (d) their determination shall (in the absence of manifest error) be conclusive and shall be binding upon all the members, and
- (e) their costs shall be borne by the Compulsory Transferor and the Company in equal shares, and in any other case, by the Company.

48 Transmission of shares

48.1 If title to a share passes to a transmittee, the Company may only recognise the transmittee as having any title to that share.

48.2 Subject to articles 43 to 46, a transmittee who produces such evidence of entitlement to shares as the directors may properly require

- (a) may, subject to these articles, choose either to become the holder of those shares or to have them transferred to another person, and
- (b) subject to these articles, and pending any transfer of the shares to another person, has the same rights as the holder had.

48.3 But a transmittee does not have the right to attend or vote at a general meeting, or agree to a proposed written resolution, in respect of shares to which they are entitled, by reason of the holder's death or bankruptcy or otherwise, unless they become the holder of those shares.

49 Exercise of transmitters' rights

- 49.1 A transmitter who wishes to become the holder of shares to which they have become entitled must notify the Company in writing of that wish.
- 49.2 If the transmitter wishes to have a share transferred to another person, the transmitter must execute a document of transfer in respect of it.
- 49.3 Any transfer made or executed under this article 49 is to be treated as if it were made or executed by the person from whom the transmitter has derived rights in respect of the share, and as if the event which gave rise to the transmission had not occurred.

50 Transmitters bound by prior notices

- 50.1 If a notice is given to a Shareholder in respect of shares and a transmitter is or becomes entitled to those shares, the transmitter is bound by the notice if it was given to the Shareholder before the transmitter's name has been entered in the register of members.

DIVIDENDS AND OTHER DISTRIBUTIONS

51 Preferred dividend

- 51.1 In any financial year, the Available Profits of the Company shall be used to pay dividends on the Preference Shares as set out in this article 51.
- 51.2 The Company shall, without resolution of the board or the Company in general meeting and before application of any Available Profits to reserve or for any other purpose, pay the holders of the preference shares (until redeemed in accordance with article 41) a fixed cumulative preferential dividend (the "Preferred Dividend") at an annual rate as determined at the date of issue on the capital for the time being paid up on those shares (excluding any premium).
- 51.3 The Preferred Dividend shall be paid on 1 October (the "Due Date") in each year to the person registered as its holder on the relevant date.
- 51.4 No Available Profits shall be distributed among the holders of the A Shares, the B Shares or the C Shares while any Preferred Dividend is due and remains unpaid.
- 51.5 The Preferred Dividend shall be distributed to the persons registered as holders of the Preference Shares pro rata according to the number of Preference Shares held by them respectively. The Preferred Dividend shall be paid in cash.
- 51.6 If the Company is unable to pay the Preferred Dividend in full on the due date because there are insufficient Available Profits, the Company shall pay the Preferred Dividend on the Due Date to the extent that it is lawfully able to do so.
- 51.7 If the Preferred Dividend (or any part of it) is not paid on the Due Date, it shall immediately become a debt due by the Company to the persons registered as holders of the Preference Shares on the Due Date and the payment of the outstanding Preferred Dividend shall be in priority to any other dividend.
- 51.8 If the Company is in arrears in paying the Preferred Dividend, the first Available Profits arising shall be applied in the following order of priority.

- (a) first, in or towards paying off any arrears of Preferred Dividend (plus interest), and
- (b) second, in or towards redeeming all Preference Shares that have not been redeemed on or by the Due Date for redemption in accordance with article 41.

52 Procedure for declaring dividends

- 52.1 The provisions of this article 52 are subject at all times to article 51.
- 52.2 The Company may by ordinary resolution declare dividends, and the directors may decide to pay interim dividends.
- 52.3 A dividend must not be declared unless the directors have made a recommendation as to its amount. Such a dividend must not exceed the amount recommended by the directors.
- 52.4 Unless the A Shareholders' resolution to declare or the directors' decision to pay a dividend specify otherwise, such dividend must be paid on an apportioned basis by reference to the amounts paid up on the class of Shares on which the dividend is to be paid on the date of the resolution or decision to declare or pay such dividend.
- 52.5 No interim dividend may be paid on shares carrying deferred or non-preferred rights if, at the time of payment, any Preferred Dividend is due and remains unpaid.
- 52.6 The directors may pay at intervals any dividend payable at a fixed rate if it appears to them that the Available Profits justify the payment.
- 52.7 If the directors act in good faith, they do not incur any liability to the holders of shares conferring preferred rights for any loss they may suffer by the lawful payment of an interim dividend on shares with deferred or non-preferred rights.

53 Payment of dividends and other distributions

- 53.1 Where a dividend or other sum which is a distribution is payable in respect of a share, it must be paid by one or more of the following means
- (a) transfer to a bank or building society account specified by the distribution recipient either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide,
 - (b) sending a cheque made payable to the distribution recipient by post to the distribution recipient at the distribution recipient's registered address (if the distribution recipient is a holder of the share), or (in any other case) to an address specified by the distribution recipient either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide,
 - (c) sending a cheque made payable to such person by post to such person at such address as the distribution recipient has specified either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide, or
 - (d) any other means of payment as the directors agree with the distribution recipient either in writing or by such other means as the directors decide.
- 53.2 In these articles, "distribution recipient" means, in respect of a share in respect of which a dividend or other sum is payable

- (a) the holder of the share,
- (b) if the share has two or more joint holders, whichever of them is named first in the register of members, or
- (c) if the holder is no longer entitled to the share by reason of death or bankruptcy, or otherwise by operation of law, the transmittee.

54 No interest on distributions

- 54.1 The Company may not pay interest on any dividend or other sum payable in respect of an A Share, B Share or C Share unless otherwise provided by the terms on which the share was issued.

55 Unclaimed distributions

- 55.1 All dividends or other sums which are payable in respect of shares, and unclaimed after having been declared or become payable may be invested or otherwise made use of by the directors for the benefit of the Company until claimed.
- 55.2 The payment of any such dividend or other sum into a separate account does not make the Company a trustee in respect of it
- 55.3 If
- (a) twelve years have passed from the date on which a dividend or other sum became due for payment, and
 - (b) the distribution recipient has not claimed it,
- the distribution recipient is no longer entitled to that dividend or other sum and it ceases to remain owing by the Company.

56 Non-cash distributions

- 56.1 Subject to the terms of issue of the share in question, the Company may, by ordinary resolution on the recommendation of the directors, decide to pay all or part of a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share by transferring non-cash assets of equivalent value (including, without limitation, shares or other securities in any company).
- 56.2 For the purposes of paying a non-cash distribution, the directors may make whatever arrangements they think fit, including for
- (a) fixing the value of any assets,
 - (b) paying cash to any distribution recipient on the basis of that value in order to adjust the rights of recipients, and
 - (c) vesting any assets in trustees.

57 Waiver of distributions

57.1 Distribution recipients may waive their entitlement to a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share by giving the Company notice in writing to that effect, but if

- (a) the share has more than one holder, or
- (b) more than one person is entitled to the share, whether by reason of the death or bankruptcy of one or more joint holders, or otherwise, the notice is not effective unless it is expressed to be given, and signed, by all the holders or persons otherwise entitled to the share.

CAPITALISATION OF PROFITS

58 Authority to capitalise and appropriation of capitalised sums

58.1 Subject to these articles, the directors may, if they are so authorised by an ordinary resolution

- (a) decide to capitalise any profits of the Company (whether or not they are available for distribution) which are not required for paying a preferential dividend, or any sum standing to the credit of the Company's share premium account or capital redemption reserve, and
- (b) appropriate any sum which they so decide to capitalise (a "capitalised sum") to the persons who would have been entitled to it if it were distributed by way of dividend (the "persons entitled") and in the same proportions.

58.2 Capitalised sums must be applied

- (a) on behalf of the persons entitled, and
- (b) in the same proportions as a dividend would have been distributed to them.

58.3 Any capitalised sum may be applied in paying up new shares of a nominal amount equal to the capitalised sum which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct Article 35.3 shall apply to any such allotment.

58.4 A capitalised sum which was appropriated from profits available for distribution may be applied

- (a) in paying up new debentures of the Company which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct, or
- (b) in or towards paying up any amount for the time being unpaid on shares held by the persons entitled.

58.5 Subject to these articles, the directors may

- (a) apply capitalised sums in accordance with articles 58.3 and 58.4 partly in one way and partly in another,

- (b) make such arrangements as they think fit to deal with shares or debentures becoming distributable in fractions under this article 58 (including the issuing of fractional certificates or the making of cash payments), and
- (c) authorise any person to enter into an agreement with the Company on behalf of all the persons entitled which is binding on them in respect of the allotment of shares and debentures to them under this article 58.

PART 4

DECISION-MAKING BY SHAREHOLDERS

ORGANISATION OF GENERAL MEETINGS

59 Attendance and speaking at general meetings

- 59.1 A person is able to exercise the right to speak at a general meeting when that person is in a position to communicate to all those attending the meeting, during the meeting, any information or opinions which that person has on the business of the meeting.
- 59.2 A person is able to exercise the right to vote at a general meeting when
 - (a) that person is able to vote, during the meeting, on resolutions put to the vote at the meeting, and
 - (b) that person's vote can be taken into account in determining whether or not such resolutions are passed at the same time as the votes of all the other persons attending the meeting.
- 59.3 The directors may make whatever arrangements they consider appropriate to enable those attending a general meeting to exercise their rights to speak or vote at it.
- 59.4 In determining attendance at a general meeting, it is immaterial whether any two or more members attending it are in the same place as each other.
- 59.5 Two or more persons who are not in the same place as each other attend a general meeting if their circumstances are such that if they have (or were to have) rights to speak and vote at that meeting, they are (or would be) able to exercise them.

60 Quorum for general meetings

- 60.1 No business other than the appointment of the chairman of the general meeting is to be transacted at a general meeting if the persons attending it do not constitute a quorum.
- 60.2 Subject to 64.2, the quorum at a general meeting or adjourned general meeting shall be two persons entitled to vote and present in person or by proxy.
- 60.3 The references in this article 60 to a proxy or representative are to a proxy or representative appointed in relation to the meeting in question in accordance with section 324 or 323 respectively of the Companies Act 2006.

61 Chairing general meetings

- 61.1 If the directors have appointed a chairman, the chairman shall chair general meetings if present and willing to do so.

61.2 If the directors have not appointed a chairman, or if the chairman is unwilling to chair the meeting or is not present within ten minutes of the time at which a meeting was due to start

(a) the directors present, or

(b) (if no directors are present) the meeting

must appoint a director or A Shareholder to chair the meeting, and the appointment of the chairman of the general meeting must be the first business of the meeting.

61.3 The person chairing a meeting in accordance with this article 61 is referred to as the "chairman of the general meeting".

62 Attendance and speaking by directors and non-Shareholders

62.1 Directors may attend and speak at general meetings, whether or not they are Shareholders.

62.2 The chairman of the general meeting may permit other persons who are not

(a) A Shareholders, or

(b) otherwise entitled to exercise the rights of A Shareholders in relation to general meetings to attend and speak at a general meeting.

63 Adjournment

63.1 If the persons attending a general meeting within half an hour of the time at which the meeting was due to start do not constitute a quorum, or if during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the chairman of the general meeting must adjourn it.

63.2 The chairman of the general meeting may adjourn a general meeting at which a quorum is present if

(a) the meeting consents to an adjournment, or

(b) it appears to the chairman of the general meeting that an adjournment is necessary to protect the safety of any person attending the meeting or ensure that the business of the meeting is conducted in an orderly manner.

63.3 The chairman of the general meeting must adjourn a general meeting if directed to do so by the meeting.

63.4 When adjourning a general meeting, the chairman of the general meeting must

(a) either specify the time and place to which it is adjourned or state that it is to continue at a time and place to be fixed by the directors, and

(b) have regard to any directions as to the time and place of any adjournment which have been given by the meeting.

- 63.5 If the continuation of an adjourned meeting is to take place more than 14 days after it was adjourned, the Company must give at least 7 clear days' notice of it (that is, excluding the day of the adjourned meeting and the day on which the notice is given)
- (a) to the same persons to whom notice of the Company's general meetings is required to be given, and
 - (b) containing the same information which such notice is required to contain.
- 63.6 No business may be transacted at an adjourned general meeting which could not properly have been transacted at the meeting if the adjournment had not taken place.

VOTING AT GENERAL MEETINGS

64 Voting: general

- 64.1 A resolution put to the vote of a general meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is duly demanded in accordance with these articles.
- 64.2 In the event that any A Shares shall become the subject of a Compulsory Transfer Notice, then until such time as such A Shares are registered in the name of the purchaser(s), the holder of such A Shares shall not be entitled to count in the quorum or vote at a general meeting. If this at any time leaves only one member entitled to count in the quorum at a general meeting, then until such A Shares are registered in the name of the purchaser(s), the quorum at a general meeting shall be one person present in person or by proxy.

65 Errors and disputes

- 65.1 No objection may be raised to the qualification of any person voting at a general meeting except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting is valid.
- 65.2 Any such objection must be referred to the chairman of the general meeting, whose decision is final.

66 Poll votes

- 66.1 A poll on a resolution may be demanded
- (a) in advance of the general meeting where it is to be put to the vote, or
 - (b) at a general meeting, either before a show of hands on that resolution or immediately after the result of a show of hands on that resolution is declared.
- 66.2 A poll may be demanded by the
- (a) chairman of the general meeting,
 - (b) any director,
 - (c) two or more persons having the right to vote on the resolution,
 - (d) a person or persons representing not less than one tenth of the total voting rights of all the A Shareholders having the right to vote on the resolution, or

- (e) a person or persons representing voting rights on shares on which an aggregate sum has been paid up equal to not less than one-tenth of the total sum paid up on all the shares which carry voting rights.

66.3 A demand for a poll may be withdrawn if

- (a) the poll has not yet been taken, and
- (b) the chairman of the general meeting consents to the withdrawal.

66.4 Polls must be taken immediately and in such manner as the chairman of the general meeting directs.

67 Content of proxy notices

67.1 Proxies may validly be appointed only by a notice in writing (a "proxy notice") which

- (a) states the name and address of the A Shareholder appointing the proxy,
- (b) identifies the person appointed to be that A Shareholder's proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed,
- (c) is signed by or on behalf of the A Shareholder appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the directors may determine, and
- (d) is delivered to the Company in accordance with these articles and any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting to which they relate.

67.2 The Company may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes.

67.3 Proxy notices may specify how the proxy is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions.

67.4 Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as

- (a) allowing the person appointed as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting, and
- (b) appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.

68 Delivery of proxy notices

68.1 A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the Company by or on behalf of that person.

68.2 An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the Company a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given.

68.3 A proxy notice or notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the taking of any vote at the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.

68.4 If a proxy notice is not executed by the person appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence of the authority of the person who executed it to execute it on behalf of the person appointing the proxy.

69 Amendments to resolutions

69.1 An ordinary resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution if

- (a) notice of the proposed amendment is given to the Company in writing by a person entitled to vote at the general meeting at which it is to be proposed not less than 48 hours before the meeting is to take place (or such later time as the chairman of the general meeting may determine), or
- (b) the chairman of the general meeting proposes the amendment at the general meeting at which the resolution is to be proposed.

and, in either case, the proposed amendment does not, in the reasonable opinion of the chairman of the general meeting, materially alter the scope of the resolution.

69.2 A special resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution if

- (a) the chairman of the general meeting proposes the amendment at the general meeting at which the resolution is to be proposed, and
- (b) the amendment does not go beyond what is necessary to correct a grammatical or other non-substantive error in the resolution.

69.3 If the chairman of the general meeting, acting in good faith, wrongly decides that an amendment to a resolution is out of order, the chairman's error does not invalidate the vote on that resolution.

PART 5

ADMINISTRATIVE ARRANGEMENTS

70 Means of communication to be used

70.1 Subject to these articles, anything sent or supplied by or to the Company under these articles may be sent or supplied in any way in which the Companies Act 2006 provides for documents or information which are authorised or required by any provision of that Act to be sent or supplied by or to the Company and the company communications provisions in the Companies Act 2006 shall apply to anything sent or supplied under these articles.

71.2 The directors may decide by what means and in what form any common seal is to be used.

73 Provision for employees on cessation of business

73.1 The directors may decide to make provision for the benefit of persons employed or formerly employed by the Company or any of its subsidiaries (other than a director or former director or shadow director) in connection with the cessation or transfer to any person of the whole or part of the undertaking of the Company or that subsidiary.
