- (5) Paragraph (4) does not apply
 - (a) if the Director's interest cannot reasonably be regarded as giving rise to any real possibility of a conflict between the interests of the Director and the Company, or

 - (i) was not validly appointed as a Director,
 - (ii) had ceased to hold office as a Director at the time of the decision,
 - (iii) was not entitled to take that decision, or
 - (iv) should, in consequence of a conflict of interests, not have voted in the process by which that decision was taken.

- (2) Where this article applies

- (a) the discovery of any defect of the kind specified in paragraph (1)(b) shall not invalidate any decision which has been taken by, or with the participation of, the person in relation to whom that defect existed, and

- (2) Thereafter, Directors may be appointed.
 - (a) by decision of the Directors, or

- (3) No powers to appoint Directors may be given to persons who are not Members which immediately after their exercise could result in the majority of the Directors having been appointed by persons who are not Members.

- (5) If

- (a) a number has been fixed by or in accordance with the Articles as the maximum number of Directors (the “relevant maximum”), and then the election of Directors shall follow the procedure set out in paragraph (6) rather than that set out in paragraph (4).

(6) Where the conditions specified in paragraph (5) are fulfilled

- (a) each Member shall be invited to vote on the candidates by ranking them in order of preference on ballot papers which they must sign and return to the Company at or before the general meeting in order to cast their votes on the candidates (and any ballot papers returned at the general meeting must be returned before the time appointed for the return of ballot papers by the chair of the meeting);

- (e) a contract under which that person is appointed as a Director of, or personally performs services for, the Company or any of its subsidiaries terminates, and the Directors decide that that person should cease to be a Director;

 - (ii) a reasonable opportunity of being heard by, or of making representations in writing to, the Directors
- (2) No powers to remove Directors may be given to persons who are not Members which immediately after their exercise could result in either
 - (a) the majority of the remaining Directors having been appointed by persons who are not Members, or
 - (b) the number of Directors removed during the financial year of the Company by persons who are not Members exceeding the number of the remaining Directors, but this shall not prevent a Director from appointing, or subsequently removing, an alternate director, if permitted to do so by the Articles

24 DIRECTORS' REMUNERATION AND OTHER TERMS OF SERVICE

- (1) Subject to the Companies Acts, and the Articles, the Company satisfying the community interest test, and any resolution passed under paragraph (2), the Directors may decide the terms (including as to remuneration) on which a Director is to perform Directors' functions, or otherwise perform any service for the Company or any of its subsidiaries
