RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE DIRECTORS IN RESPECT

OF THE PREPARATION OF THE ACCOUNTS

The directors are required by company law to prepare accounts which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company at the end of the financial year. The accounts must be prepared in accordance with applicable accounting standards. In addition, the directors are required to formulate suitable accounting policies and to apply them consistently and to make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent. They are also required to prepare the accounts on a going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume the company will continue in business.

The directors are also responsible for maintaining adequate accounting records, for safeguarding the assets of the company, and for preventing and detecting fraud and other irregularities.

BARNETT SANDERSON DESIGN LIMITED
ACCOUNTANTS' REPORT
31 OCTOBER 2005

Page 4.

We have examined, without carrying out an audit, the accounts for the year ended 31 October 2005 set out on pages 5 to 8.

Respective responsibilities of the Directors and Reporting Accountant

As described on page 3 the company's directors are responsible for the preparation of the accounts, and they believe that the company is exempt from an audit. It is our responsibility to examine the accounts and, based on our examination to report our opinion, as set out below, to the shareholders.

Basis of Opinion

We conducted our examination in accordance with the appropriate standards for Reporting Accountants. This examination consisted of comparing the accounts with the accounting records kept by the company, and making such limited enquires of the company's officers as we considered necessary for the purpose of this Report.

The examination was not an audit conducted in accordance with Auditing Standards. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion on the accounts and our examination does not provide any assurance that the company's records and accounts are free from material misstatement.

Opinion

In our opinion:

- a. the accounts are in agreement with those accounting records kept by the company under Section 221 of the Companies Act 1985;
 - b. having regard only to, and on the basis of, the information contained in those accounting records, the accounts have been drawn up in a manner consistent with the accounting requirements specified in Section 249C(4) of the Act;
- and
- c. having regard only to, and on the basis of, the information contained in those accounting records, the company satisfied the conditions for exemption from an audit of the accounts for the year specified in Section 249A(4) of the Act and did not, at any time during that year, fall within any of the categories of companies not entitled to exemption specified in Section 249B(1).
