Critical accounting estimates and judgements

The company makes estimates and assumptions concerning the future. The resulting accounting estimates will, by definition, seldom equal the related actual results. The estimates and assumptions that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year are addressed below.

Tax

Management judgement is required to determine the amount of deferred tax assets that can be recognised, based upon the likely timing and level of future taxable profits together with an assessment of the effect of future tax planning strategies.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents includes cash on hand, deposits held at call with banks and other short term high liquidity investments with original maturities of three months or less.

Financial assets

The company classifies its financial assets in the following categories: at fair value through profit or loss, loans and receivables, held to maturity and available for sale. The classification depends on the purpose for which the financial assets were acquired. Management determines the classification of its financial assets at initial recognition and re-evaluates this designation at every reporting date. The company has no financial assets classified as at fair value through profit or loss, or available for sale.

Loans and receivables are included in Trade and other receivables in the Statement of Financial Position.

• Impairment of financial assets

The company assesses at the end of each reporting period whether there is objective evidence that a financial asset or group of financial assets is impaired. A financial asset or a group of financial assets is impaired and impairment losses are incurred only if there is objective evidence of impairment as a result of one or more events that occurred after the initial recognition of the asset (a 'loss event') and that loss event (or events) has an impact on the estimated future cash flows of the financial asset or group of financial assets that can be reliably estimated.

Financial liabilities

Financial liabilities are measured at fair value on initial recognition.

Loans and borrowings

All loans and borrowings except for certain inter-entity loans and borrowings are non-interest bearing and are initially recognised at fair value and subsequently recorded at amortised cost, representing the present value of the loan, calculated using the effective interest rate of the loan or borrowing over its term. They are included in current liabilities, unless the company has an unconditional right to defer settlement of the loan or borrowing for at least 12 months after the end of the reporting period. Costs incurred with borrowings are expensed to the Statement of Comprehensive Income as they are incurred.
