Where the A1 Shareholder intends to issue such a recommendation, it shall first consult in good faith with the board of directors (or the Chairman and/or the CEO) as to the nature of such recommendation. Save in respect of any action or omission which is required to be approved by the directors pursuant to clause 3.4 of the Assurances Agreement before it can be taken or omitted to be taken as the case may be, each such director shall vote in accordance with any such recommendation at any directors' meeting at which the relevant resolution is proposed, provided that each such director is satisfied that to vote in accordance with such recommendation would not constitute a breach of article 9(1) above. Article 23 Right to Appoint and remove Directors (1) With effect from and including the 25 January 2011 (or such other dates as indicated below), the following persons shall be appointed as directors of the company for the Initial Period: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) Chairman initially Sir Martin Broughton, (b) Chief Executive Officer initially Mr K Williams, (c) Two executive directors initially Mr A Crawley and Mr F van der Post, (d) Group Chief Financial Officer initially Mr E Dupuy De Lome, (e) I Opco Chief Executive Officer initially Mr R Sánchez-Lozano Turmo, and (f) Three non-executive directors initially Ms A Reed, Mr K Smart and Mr G Patterson and any other person who was at that time a director of the company shall cease to be a director. As referred to above, Sir Martin Broughton shall be the Chairman and Mr K Williams shall be the CEO. (2) Subject to article 23(10), the B Shareholder shall be entitled by notice in writing to the company and to the A1 Shareholder to appoint up to four directors (the "B Directors") and to remove any such appointee at any time. Any B Director appointed by the B Shareholder shall be a United Kingdom National. The appointment or removal takes effect immediately upon deposit of the notice with the company or on such later date (if any) specified in the notice. The B Shareholder shall, prior to the service of any notice appointing or removing a director, consult, in good faith, with the A1 Shareholder as to such appointment or removal. However, following such consultation any decision to appoint or remove any such director shall solely be made by the B Shareholder. The directors referred to in article 23(1)(f) shall constitute the initial B Directors. The B Shareholder shall not appoint more than three B Directors unless requested, in writing, to do so by two of the then appointed B Directors.

Voting rights	Article 62 Voting B Shareholder (continued) (3) Where the B Shareholder determines that it will not vote in accordance with the recommendation of the A1 Shareholder in respect of any resolution (the "Disputed Resolution") pursuant to article 62 (1), it shall notify the A1 Shareholder in writing of such fact as soon as reasonably practicable and, in any event, prior to the meeting at which the Disputed Resolution is to be proposed. If such notification is made, the A1 Shareholder may convene a meeting of its shareholders to consider the Disputed Resolution. In the event that the A1 Shareholder exercises such right, the general meeting at which the Disputed Resolution is to be proposed shall be adjourned until such time as the shareholders' meeting of the A1 Shareholder has been held. At such shareholders' meeting of the A1 Shareholder, any vote on a resolution shall be conducted by a poll and, in the event that the voting rights of the UK National Shares do not carry a majority of the total voting rights in the A1 Shareholder, then the voting rights in respect of the UK National Shares shall be treated as being magnified so that such shares shall, together, carry a majority of the voting rights in the A1 Shareholder. In effecting such magnification, each UK National Share may have a fractional number of votes per share and calculations of the relevant fraction shall be rounded up to the nearest 2 decimal places and the number of votes that they shall carry together shall be such number as is as close to 50% of the resulting number of votes after such magnification (rounded up to the nearest whole number) plus one vote as is reasonably practicable taking account of the provisions on fractions set out above. For example, if the A1 Shareholder has 799,999 ordinary shares in issue, with each share carrying one vote and 200,000 of such shares are UK National Shares, then the votes of each UK National Share will be magnified such that each such share shall be treated as carrying 3 votes to every one vote carried by the ordinary shares which are not UK National Shares such that the UK National Shares together carry 600,000 votes of the 1,199,999 votes available to be cast on that resolution. (4) In the event that, at a shareholders' meeting duly convened by the A1 Shareholder pursuant to article 62(3), the shareholders of the A1 Shareholder vote in favour of the Disputed Resolution (taking into account the fact that the voting rights in respect of the UK National Shares shall be treated as having been magnified in accordance with article 62(3)), then the B Shareholder must vote in favour of such resolution at any reconvened general meeting of the company at which such resolution is proposed (irrespective of the effect of such vote on the holders of the UK National Shares). In the event that the shareholders of the A1 Shareholder do not vote in favour of the Disputed Resolution (taking into account the fact that the voting rights in respect of the UK National Shares shall be treated as having been magnified in accordance with article 62(3)), then the B Shareholder must vote against such resolution at any reconvened general meeting of the company at which such resolution is proposed (irrespective of the effect of such vote on the holders of the UK National Shares).

In addition, no such transfer of B Shares must be effected until the person or persons to whom such shares are to be transferred has or have agreed in writing to enter into a Deed of Adherence upon such B Shares being transferred to it or them (4) In the event that the A1 Shareholder exercises its right under article 38(2)(b) to require the company to redeem the B Shares held by the B Shareholder prior to the expiry of the Initial Period, the relevant Redemption Notice must contain the names and registered addresses of the persons to whom an equivalent number of B Shares (carrying equivalent rights to the B Shares which are to be redeemed) are to be issued following the relevant redemption (the "New B Shareholders"). The A1 Shareholder must not nominate any person as a New B Shareholder where the issue of B Shares to such person would, if effected, result in the corporate structure of the company no longer meeting the requirements of the National Control Structure. The company will issue B Shares to the New B Shareholders in accordance with the relevant Redemption Notice subject to receipt by the company of the relevant subscription monies from the New B Shareholders immediately prior to, simultaneously with, or as soon as reasonably practicable following, the completion of the relevant redemption of B Shares. In addition, no such redemption of B Shares shall be effected until the New B Shareholders have agreed in writing to enter into a Deed of Adherence upon the relevant B Shares being issued to them (5) The provisions of article 38(3) do not apply in the event that the A1 Shareholder exercises its right under article 38(2)(a) following the expiry of the Initial Period and the provisions of article 38(4) do not apply in the event that the A1 Shareholder exercises its right under article 38(2)(b) following the expiry of the Initial Period provided, in each case, that the I Opco National Control Structure has previously been terminated or is to terminate at substantially the same time as the National Control Structure Article 39 Obligation on transfer or redemption of B Shares (1) Where the A1 Shareholder or the B Shareholder exercise its respective right to require the company to redeem any B Shares in accordance with article 38(2)(b), the company and the B Shareholder shall take all actions as may be reasonably necessary to effect such redemption of any B Shares in accordance with article 38(2)(b) and these articles and shall execute such documentation as may be reasonably requested by the A1 Shareholder in respect of such redemption (2) Where the A1 Shareholder exercises its right to require the transfer of any B Shares from the B Shareholder in accordance with article 38(2)(a), the B Shareholder shall take all actions as may be reasonably necessary to effect the transfer of such B Shares in accordance with article 38(2)(a) and these articles and shall execute such documentation as may be reasonably requested by the A1 Shareholder in respect of such transfer

Unless the Assurances Committee has delivered a Committee Opinion in respect of any resolution by the date falling two Business Days prior to the date on which the B Shareholder is required to vote in respect of such resolution, then such resolution shall be deemed not to result in either of the consequences set out in article 62(1)(a) or (b) if it were passed or, as the case may be, not passed. (3) Where the B Shareholder determines that it will not vote in accordance with the recommendation of the A1 Shareholder in respect of any resolution (the "Disputed Resolution") pursuant to article 62(1), it shall notify the A1 Shareholder in writing of such fact as soon as reasonably practicable and, in any event, prior to the meeting at which the Disputed Resolution is to be proposed. If such notification is made, the A1 Shareholder may convene a meeting of its shareholders to consider the Disputed Resolution. In the event that the A1 Shareholder exercises such right, the general meeting at which the Disputed Resolution is to be proposed shall be adjourned until such time as the shareholders' meeting of the A1 Shareholder has been held. At such shareholders' meeting of the A1 Shareholder, any vote on a resolution shall be conducted by a poll and, in the event that the voting rights of the UK National Shares do not carry a majority of the total voting rights in the A1 Shareholder, then the voting rights in respect of the UK National Shares shall be treated as being magnified so that such shares shall, together, carry a majority of the voting rights in the A1 Shareholder. In effecting such magnification, each UK National Share may have a fractional number of votes per share and calculations of the relevant fraction shall be rounded up to the nearest 2 decimal places and the number of votes that they shall carry together shall be such number as is as close to 50% of the resulting number of votes after such magnification (rounded up to the nearest whole number) plus one vote as is reasonably practicable taking account of the provisions on fractions set out above. For example, if the A1 Shareholder has 799,999 ordinary shares in issue, with each share carrying one vote and 200,000 of such shares are UK National Shares, then the votes of each UK National Share will be magnified such that each such share shall be treated as carrying 3 votes to every one vote carried by the ordinary shares which are not UK National Shares such that the UK National Shares together carry 600,000 votes of the 1,199,999 votes available to be cast on that resolution.
