Short particulars

In the Deed, as a continuing security for the payment and performance of the Secured Obligations, the Mortgagor, with full title guarantee, has agreed to mortgage to the Mortgagee, as security trustee for the Finance Parties, all of its right, title and interest, present and future, in and to the Airframe, including for the avoidance of doubt the Technical Records relating thereto, by way of first priority legal mortgage.

In the Deed, as a continuing security for the payment and performance of the Secured Obligations, the Mortgagor has assigned and has agreed to assign, with full title guarantee, to the Mortgagee and all of its right, title and interest (present and future) in, to and under the Assigned Property.

In the Deed, to the extent that any of the Assigned Property is not at any time assigned pursuant to Clause 3.1 (Assignment) of the Deed, the Mortgagor, with full title guarantee, by way of first fixed charge, has charged and has agreed to charge to, and has created and has agreed to create in favour of, the Mortgagee, as Security Trustee for the Finance Parties, a general encumbrance in the Assigned Property to the fullest extent permitted by law

The Deed contains a covenant for further assurance and a negative pledge

8 Delivery of instrument

You must deliver the original instrument (if any) creating or evidencing the charge and these prescribed particulars to the Registrar of Companies within 21 days after the date of creation of the charge (section 860). If the property is situated and the charge was created outside the United Kingdom (UK), you must deliver the information to the Registrar within 21 days after the date on which the instrument could have been received in the UK in the normal course of post and assuming you had posted it promptly (section 870).

We will accept a verified copy of the instrument creating the charge where the property charged is situated and the charge was created outside the UK (section 866). The company or the person who has delivered the copy to the Registrar must verify it to be a correct copy and sign it. Where a body corporate gives the verification, an officer of that body must sign it. We will also accept a verified copy where section 867(2) applies (property situated in another part of UK).
