Director's report

The director presents his unaudited annual report together with the financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2016.

Principal activity and review of the business

The Company is a wholly-owned subsidiary undertaking of Camelot UK Lotteries Limited, a company registered in England and Wales. The Company is dormant and did not trade during the year and the director does not foresee any changes in the year ahead.

Results and dividends

The Company has not traded during the year or the preceding financial year. During these years, the Company received no income and incurred no expenditure and therefore made neither profit nor loss during the year. The financial position of the Company is set out in the attached financial statements. The director does not recommend the payment of a dividend.

Director

The directors of the Company who held office during the year ended 31 March 2016 were as follows:

A Duncan

Director's interests

The director did not have any interest in the shares of the Company during the year.

Auditors

For the year ended 31 March 2016, the Company was entitled to exemption under section 480 of the Companies Act 2006 relating to dormant companies. No members have required the Company to obtain an audit of its accounts for the year in question in accordance with section 476.

General meeting

An elective resolution has been passed to dispense with the requirement to lay accounts before the Company in general meeting and to dispense with holding the general meeting.

CAMELOT LOTTERIES LIMITED

Statement of director's responsibilities

Company law requires the director to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company as at the end of the financial year and of the profit or loss of the Company for that year. In preparing those financial statements, the director is required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the Company will continue in business.

The members have not required the Company to obtain an audit of its accounts for the year in question in accordance with section 476.

The director is responsible for keeping proper accounting records and the preparation of accounts, which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time, the financial position of the Company and which enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.
