The Directors (who are also the Trustees of the charity and are listed in the Reference and Administrative details section) are pleased to present their report together with the financial statements of the charitable company for the year ended 31 August 2019.

The financial statements comply with the Charities Act 2011, the Companies Act 2006, the Memorandum and Articles of Association, and Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2015).

The charitable company is a Public Benefit Entity.

Objectives and activities

The object for which the charitable company is formed is to advance education for the public benefit in subjects relating to global issues.

Centre for Global Education, York's (CGE) area of operation is the City of York, East Riding of Yorkshire and North Yorkshire, and achieved its charitable objects through the following activities: -

- 1. The delivery of global learning training sessions which were delivered through the Government Global Learning Programme (GLP) to individual schools and school clusters.
- CGE strives to work in partnership with other community groups and charities to enhance the global education remit. CGE also worked with International Tree Foundation and Learning Through Landscapes on the 3-year Fruitful Community Project. CGE delivered workshop training culminating in the creation of an orchard in Grimsby YMCA Peaks Lane.
- 3. Through its involvement in Qualified Teacher Status (QTS), Post Graduate Certificate in Education (PGCE) modules (Secondary RE) and TEFL training at York St John University (YSJ). CGE has been involved in exploring YSJ's diversity within its student cohorts, with an aim of actively promoting and encouraging more BME students into the university. CGE has also been in talks with YSJ to try and encourage QTS modules to have a P4C training element.
- 4. Supporting schools with global awards such as Eco Schools, Rights Respecting School Award, Fair Trade School Status and the Global School Award. An Associate of CGE provided direct support and assessment for UNICEF's Rights Respecting Schools in the region for both Level 1 and Level 2 awards.
- 5. Providing up to date knowledge of global issues at training sessions, and in particular through its website and social media. CGE regularly sent out a newsletter to its members and friends via Mailchimp to share further its global work and share valuable information or activities that enhance global learning.

The Directors/Trustees believe they have complied with the duty in section 17 of the 2011 Charities Act to have due regard to guidance published by the Charity Commission in respect of public benefit.

Achievements and performance

- In the academic year 2018/19 CGE delivered CPD training, on range of topics under the Global Learning programme, to teachers and school staff, advancing education in global learning in schools within Yorkshire and Humberside. The evaluations from delegates from these courses graded all areas as excellent (these have been reviewed by the CGE directors/trustees).
- CGE continued working in partnership with the charities International Tree Foundation and Learning through Landscapes on the Fruitful Community Project. Courses were delivered throughout Humberside, North Yorkshire and Teesside.

The aim of the project is to encourage and train YMCA residents in tree and fruit care, sustainability and horticultural skills which will create a community orchard in year one at Grimsby YMCA. The orchard holds 60+ trees, 30+ soft fruits and also a vegetable area.

- CGE uses social media through its website, Facebook and Twitter account to share global learning resources and events with members of the public and friends of CGE. This tool will further advance CGEs educational drive to benefit the public. CGE has a growing following of Facebook friends who also forward our notices to other friends on their Facebook accounts.
- CGE continues to support researchers in Human Rights and Global Citizenship, both in York St John University and the University of York.

Investment powers and policy

Under the Memorandum and Articles of Association, the charitable company has the power to make any investments which the Trustees see fit. However, the charitable company did not hold any investments during the year ended 31 August 2019 nor does it have any plans for the immediate future

Reserves policy

Having regard inter alia to their legal duties of prudence and care the Directors/Trustees believe it is prudent for CGE to maintain minimum unrestricted non-designated reserves equivalent to at least one year's core expenditure to provide the ability to:

- ensure that the charitable company does not become insolvent;
- meet unforeseen expenditure and provide flexibility in meeting growing demands;
- fund short-term deficits in income;
- ensure that the charitable company can meet its financial commitments;
- cover short term timing differences between income receipts and outgoing payments;
- give the charitable company time to consider other options to raise money or to cover operational costs and commitments should the decision be taken to wind the charitable company down.

Reserves are maintained through the generation of surpluses from delivery of activities, fundraising appeals and events, and shall be defined as unrestricted cash and debtors less liabilities. The current unrestricted non-designated reserves figure at 31 August 2019 amounted to £17,978 and represents approximately fifteen months core normal expenditure.

Going concern

Since early March 2020, due to the worldwide coronavirus pandemic, CGE has been unable to operate effectively in schools and other educational settings. Whilst potential income has been lost as a result of being unable to deliver face-to-face courses, the CGE cost base is such that the organisation has not incurred, and will not incur, significant expenditure during the "lockdown" period and whilst educational settings are closed.

It is hard at present to assess the full impact of the worldwide crisis but at this stage the Directors/Trustees have a reasonable expectation that the charitable company has adequate reserves to continue in existence for the foreseeable future. They continue to believe that the going concern basis of accounting is appropriate in preparing the financial statements.

Plans for future periods

CGE plans to continue its advancement of education for public benefit, through its courses, bespoke training, public annual events and delivery into QTS and PGCE teacher training.

CGE will continue its re-structuring phase in the period Autumn 2020 to Spring 2021. The search for grant funding to establish new projects with a global education dimension is continuing.

Structure, Governance and Management

Governing document

Centre For Global Education, York ("CGE") is a company limited by guarantee governed by its Memorandum and Articles of Association dated 15 September 2005 as amended by special resolutions dated 5 November 2012 and 29 January 2014.

Appointment of Directors/Trustees

The Directors of the charitable company are also charity Trustees for the purposes of charity law, and are known collectively as "The Directors". The minimum number of Directors under the Articles shall not be less than 3 but shall not be subject to any maximum.

Appointment of Directors/Trustees

The Directors may at any time co-opt any person as a Director, either to fill a casual vacancy or by way of addition to their number. Any person co-opted shall remain in office until the next Annual General Meeting, but shall then be eligible for re-election. At the first Annual General Meeting and at each following Annual General Meeting one-third of the Directors shall retire from office. The Directors to retire shall be those who have been longest in office since their last election or appointment. At the meeting at which a Director retires the charitable company may appoint a new Director in place of the retiring Director. If standing for re-election the retiring Director shall be deemed to have been re-elected, unless at the meeting it is expressly resolved not to replace the retiring Director or a resolution for the re-election of the retiring Director shall have been put to the meeting and lost.

Directors/Trustees induction and training

Potential Directors/Trustees meet with the Chair of Directors and another Director and are invited to attend a Directors' Meeting as an observer prior to consenting to being put forward for appointment. Due diligence is exercised in checking that there are no reasons as to why they should not be appointed as a Director/Trustee. New Directors/Trustees are briefed on their legal obligations under charity and company law, the content of the Memorandum and Articles of Association, the Directors' decision making processes, the business plan and recent financial performance of the charitable company. During their induction they meet key members of the charitable company and other Directors. Directors/Trustees are encouraged to attend appropriate external training events where these will facilitate the undertaking of their role and relevant external training opportunities are brought to the attention of the Directors by the Company Secretary. CGE operates an annual appraisal process whereby Directors can identify specific areas of interest, assess their contribution to the charitable company and identify skills and areas of knowledge they would like to develop further. Directors are also encouraged to visit activities delivered by the charitable company to facilitate their understanding of the work of the charitable company.

Organisation

The Directors administer the charitable company and they meet bi-monthly. An Administrator is appointed by the Directors to manage the day-to-day operations of the charitable company. To facilitate effective operations, the Administrator has delegated authority, within terms of delegation approved by the Directors, for operational matters including finance, fundraising and project programme related activity.

The Directors who served during the year and up to the date of this report are set out in the reference and administration section.

Related parties

None of the Directors receives remuneration or other benefit from their work with the charitable company. Any connection between a Director with a contracted organisation must be disclosed to the Directors in the same way as any other contractual relationship with a related party. Details of transactions with related parties are contained within the notes to the accounts.

Risk management

The Directors have a risk management strategy which comprises:

- · an annual review of the risks the charitable company may face;
- the establishment of systems and procedures to mitigate those risks identified in the plan;
 and
- the implementation of procedures designed to minimise any potential impact on the charitable company should those risks materialise.

This work has identified that financial sustainability is the major financial risk for the charitable company. This risk is managed by ensuring that the charitable company has adequate unrestricted cash reserves to cover any short-term cash fluctuations and deficits in income whilst alternative funding sources are sought.

Directors'/Trustees' responsibilities in relation to the financial statements

Company law requires the Directors/Trustees to prepare financial statements that give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company at the end of the financial year and of its surplus or deficit for the financial year. In doing so the Directors/Trustees are required to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- · Make sound judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charitable company will continue in business.

The Directors/Trustees are responsible for maintaining proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and enables them to ensure that the financial accounts comply with the Companies Act 2006 and applicable charity law.

The Directors/Trustees are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charitable company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.
