Report of the Trustees for the Year Ended 29 February 2020

The trustees who are also directors of the charity for the purposes of the Companies Act 2006, present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 29 February 2020. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019).

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and aims

The charity's purpose is to relieve suffering by providing multi sensory crafting sessions in a safe, secure environment for able bodied adults and children as well as those requiring additional support.

Review of the year and future plans

They say hindsight is a wonderful thing. I have to agree. I look back on the year 2019/20 and feel so proud! For in that year the Creative Care volunteers worked six days a week organising classes, workshops, residentials, weekly programmes for adults with additional support needs, fundraisers, SECC Exhibitions (yes, two of them!) and of course our much loved Victorian Christmas celebrations with 460 children accompanied by mums dads grannys and grandpas all anxious to see Mr and Mrs Claus in their Winter Wonderland setting.

Those were the days!

I'm proud when I think not only of the tightknit team of volunteers who brought each project to fruition but at the fun and happiness we brought to so many.

It's not like me to be quite so retrospective but who would have thought that life as we knew it would change so suddenly? For we are now in the middle of a world pandemic.

Once upon a time we opened doors, hugged friends and family, shook hands with strangers and always had the kettle boiling. Now thanks to Covid 19 we wear face masks indoors and live in a 'bubble'. No more 'open door' policies. No more 'over the shoulder' personal help with crafting projects and certainly no more sitting closely with pals!

But - we have a vision. A vision that sees Brackenbrae House opening again safely. And that is now our keyword. Safely. Adapting our procedures and projects to meet the needs and safety of our participants.

We promise to continue sending complimentary crafting packs every three weeks to our members for we know they are greatly appreciated. And we also promise to keep the phone lines open if you need a blether.

Our motto has always been 'Forward in Faith' so I say to you now as we adapt and shift with the problems and challenges we face let's go 'Forward in Faith' together.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Governing document

The charity is controlled by its governing document, a deed of trust, and constitutes a limited company, limited by guarantee, as defined by the Companies Act 2006.

Recruitment and appointment of new trustees

The trustees do not require to retire annually. The appointment of new trustees requires the approval of those serving as trustees at the date of the proposed nomination.

Risk management

The trustees have a duty to identify and review the risks to which the charity is exposed and to ensure appropriate controls are in place to provide reasonable assurance against fraud and error.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Creative Care Scotland

I report on the accounts for the year ended 29 February 2020 set out on pages four to ten.

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity's trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1)(a) to (c) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under Section 44(1)(c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of the independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements (1)
- to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1)(a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations; and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with Regulation 8 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met; or to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be
