1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and activities. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for transparency and accountability, particularly in financial matters. The text suggests that organizations should implement robust systems to track every detail, from small expenses to major investments.

2. The second section focuses on the role of leadership in setting the tone for ethical behavior. It argues that leaders must not only model the behavior they expect from others but also ensure that their actions are consistent with the organization's stated values. This section highlights the importance of communication in reinforcing these expectations and providing clear guidance to employees.

3. The third part of the document addresses the challenges of maintaining integrity in a complex and fast-paced environment. It acknowledges that there will be times when the pressure to cut corners or engage in unethical practices may be high. However, it stresses that the long-term benefits of integrity far outweigh the short-term gains of dishonesty. The text provides several strategies for navigating these challenges, including seeking advice from mentors and colleagues.

4. The fourth section discusses the importance of regular training and education for all employees. It suggests that organizations should invest in ongoing training programs that cover not only technical skills but also ethical principles and decision-making frameworks. This section emphasizes that training should be tailored to the specific needs of different roles and departments, ensuring that everyone has the necessary knowledge and skills to uphold the organization's standards.

5. The fifth part of the document explores the role of external stakeholders in promoting integrity. It notes that organizations are often subject to scrutiny from the media, regulators, and the public. Therefore, it is crucial to maintain a high level of transparency and to engage in open dialogue with these groups. The text suggests that organizations should proactively share information about their operations and any challenges they face, demonstrating a commitment to honesty and accountability.

6. The sixth section discusses the importance of monitoring and evaluating the organization's performance in terms of integrity. It suggests that organizations should establish clear metrics and indicators to measure the effectiveness of their integrity initiatives. This section emphasizes that regular monitoring and evaluation are necessary to identify areas for improvement and to ensure that the organization remains on track with its goals.

7. The seventh part of the document addresses the importance of fostering a culture of integrity. It argues that integrity should not be seen as a mere set of rules to be followed, but rather as a core value that permeates every aspect of the organization's culture. The text suggests that organizations should create an environment where integrity is rewarded and where employees feel empowered to speak up if they observe any unethical behavior.

8. The eighth section discusses the importance of maintaining integrity in the face of adversity. It acknowledges that organizations may face significant challenges and setbacks, which can test their resolve to remain ethical. However, it stresses that maintaining integrity during difficult times is essential for long-term success. The text provides several strategies for staying resilient and ethical in the face of adversity, including seeking support from external organizations and maintaining a focus on the organization's mission and values.

9. The ninth part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining integrity in the digital age. It notes that the use of technology has created new opportunities for unethical behavior, such as data breaches and cyberstalking. Therefore, it is crucial for organizations to implement strong cybersecurity measures and to educate employees about the risks of digital communication. The text suggests that organizations should also be transparent about their data handling practices and to ensure that they are compliant with relevant regulations.

10. The tenth and final section of the document discusses the importance of maintaining integrity in the face of global challenges. It notes that organizations are increasingly operating in a global context, which requires them to navigate different cultural norms and legal systems. The text suggests that organizations should maintain a consistent commitment to integrity across all operations, while also being sensitive to local customs and regulations. It emphasizes that integrity is a universal value that transcends cultural boundaries and is essential for building trust and credibility in a global market.

Articles of Association

OF DIAMOND PRECISION ENGINEERING (WIRRAL) LIMITED

PRELIMINARY

1. The regulations contained in Table A in the Schedule to the Companies (Tables A to F) Regulations 1985 as amended by the Companies (Tables A to F) (Amendment) Regulations 1985 (hereinafter referred to as "Table A") subject to the additions exclusions and modifications hereinafter expressed shall constitute the Articles of Association of the Company.

SHARE CAPITAL

2. The share capital of the Company at the date of adoption of these Articles is £20,000 divided into 10,000 'A' shares of £1 each and 10,000 'B' shares of £1 each. The rights and privileges attaching to the respective classes of shares shall be as follows:

As regards voting

The holders of the 'B' shares shall not be entitled to receive notice of, or attend, or vote at any general meeting of the Company.

As regards income

The 'A' shares and the 'B' shares shall rank pari passu with regard to entitlement to dividend except that the directors may at any time resolve to declare different dividends in relation to each class of share and may also resolve to declare a dividend on one class of share and not on the other class.

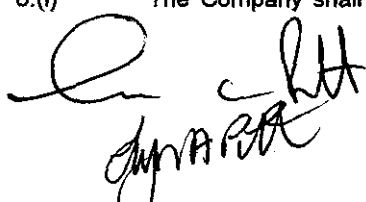

As regards capital

On a return of assets on liquidation, reduction of capital or otherwise, the surplus assets of the Company remaining after payment of its liabilities shall be applied:

- (i) first in paying to the holders of the 'A' shares an amount per share equal to the sum paid up or credited as paid up thereon;
 - (ii) next and subject to (i) hereof, the balance of such assets shall belong to and be distributed amongst the holders of the 'A' shares in proportion to the amounts paid up or credited as paid up thereon.
3. The Directors of the Company may (subject to regulations 4 and 5(i) below and section 80 of the Act) allot grant options over or otherwise deal with or dispose of any relevant securities (as defined by section 80(2) of the Act) in the Company on such terms and conditions and in such manner as they shall think proper.
 4. The Directors of the Company are generally and unconditionally authorised during the period of five years from the date of incorporation of the Company to allot grant rights to subscribe for or convert securities into shares in relation to the original shares in the authorised share capital of the Company to such persons at such times and on such terms and conditions as they think fit subject to the provisions of section 80 of the Act.
 - 5.(i) Subject to any direction to the contrary that may be given by Special Resolution by the Company in General Meeting any shares which do not comprise the original authorised share capital of the Company shall before they are issued be offered to the Members in proportion as nearly as possible to the nominal value of the existing shares held by them and such offer shall be made by notice specifying the number of shares to which the Member is entitled and limiting a time within which the offer if not accepted shall be deemed to be declined and after the expiration of such time or on receipt of an intimation from the Member to whom the notice is given that he declines to accept the shares the Directors may dispose of the same in such manner as they think most beneficial to the Company. The provisions of this paragraph shall have effect only insofar as they are not inconsistent with section 80 of the Act.
 - (ii) In accordance with section 91(1) of the Act section 89(1) and sections 90(1) to (6) (inclusive) of the Act shall not apply to the Company.

LIEN

- 6.(i) The Company shall have a first and paramount lien on every share (whether or not it is a fully paid share) for all moneys (whether presently payable or not) payable at a fixed time or called in respect of that share. The Company shall also have a first and paramount lien on every share (whether or not it is a fully paid share) standing registered in the name of any Member solely or registered in the names of two or more joint holders for all moneys presently payable by him or his estate to the Company. The Directors may at any time declare any share to be wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this regulation.

- (ii) Regulation 8 of Table A shall not apply to the Company.

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

- 7.(i) An Annual General Meeting and an Extraordinary General Meeting called for the passing of a Special Resolution or a Resolution appointing a person as a Director shall be called by at least twenty-one clear days' notice. All other Extraordinary General Meetings shall be called by at least fourteen clear days' notice but a General Meeting may be called by shorter notice if it is so agreed -

- (a) in the case of an Annual General Meeting by all the Members entitled to attend and vote thereat; and
- (b) in the case of any other Meeting by a majority in number of the Members having a right to attend and vote being a majority together holding not less than ninety-five per cent. in nominal value of the shares giving that right.

- (ii) The notice shall specify the time and place of the Meeting and in the case of special business only the general nature of the special business to be transacted and in the case of an Annual General Meeting shall specify the Meeting as such.

- (iii) All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an Extraordinary General Meeting and also all that is transacted at an Annual General Meeting with the exception of declaring a dividend the consideration of the accounts balance sheets and the reports of the Directors and Auditors and the appointment of and the fixing of the remuneration of the Auditors.

- (iv) Subject to the provisions of these Articles and to any restrictions imposed on any shares all notices of and any other communications relating to any General Meetings of the Company or of separate General Meetings of the holders of any class of share capital of the Company shall be given to all the Members to all persons entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a Member and to the Directors and Auditors of the Company for the time being.

- (v) Regulation 38 of Table A shall not apply to the Company.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

- 8.(i) No business shall be transacted at any Meeting unless a quorum is present at the time the Meeting proceeds to business. One person entitled to vote upon the business to be transacted being a Member or a proxy for a Member or a duly authorised representative of a corporation shall be a quorum.

- (ii) If such a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the Meeting the Meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place or such time and place as the Directors may determine. If at the adjourned Meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the Meeting such adjourned Meeting shall be dissolved.

- (iii) Regulations 40 and 41 of Table A shall not apply to the Company.
