DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES

Company Law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for the year.

In preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to:

- (a) select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently:
- (b) make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent:
- (c) follow applicable accounting standards, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the accounts:
- (d) Preparing the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume the company will continue in business.

The directors confirm that the accounts comply with the above requirements.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities

AUDITORS

Under Companies Act 1985 (Audit exemption) Regulation 1994 (SI 1994/1935) Audit exemptions apply.
