26A. Share transfers: pre-emption rights

- (1) No member may transfer any 'B' ordinary shares or any beneficial interest therein otherwise than:
 - (a) on a share sale or asset sale;
 - (b) pursuant to articles 26A(20) and 26A(21) (drag along), article 26A(23) (tag along) or article 26B (mandatory transfers),
 - (c) with the written consent of the holders of a majority of the 'A' ordinary shares
- (2) Subject to article 26A(1), any member ("proposing transferor") proposing to transfer any shares, transfer a beneficial interest in any shares, create a trust or encumbrance over any shares or transfer of any other interest in shares shall give notice in writing ("transfer notice") to the company that he desires to transfer the same and specifying the price per share at which he is willing to sell them. Such transfer notice shall constitute the company the agent of the proposing transferor in accordance with article 26A(10) in the event that the company declines an offer or is deemed to have declined an offer to purchase the shares which are the subject of a transfer notice

- (3) A transfer notice shall not be revocable except with the sanction of all of the directors or as provided in article 26A(12)(f)
- (4) The giving of a transfer notice shall constitute an offer of the shares comprised in that transfer notice ("sale shares") to the company. The company shall have 14 working days from receipt of a transfer notice to accept this offer by giving written notice to the proposing transferor. If the company fails to accept an offer made by transfer notice within this time period it shall be deemed to have declined such offer.
- (5) The company has the right to request a certificate of value under article 26A(12). Unless a transfer notice is withdrawn in accordance with article 26A(12)(f), the company may purchase the sale shares at the lower of the price specified in the transfer notice and (if applicable) their value certified in accordance with article 26A(12) ("transfer price")
- (6) If the company requests a certificate of value, the offer noted in article 26A(4) will remain open for acceptance until the expiry of a period of 15 working days commencing on the date that the notice of the certified value is given to the company pursuant to article 26A(12).
- (7) If the company accepts the offer noted in article 26A(4) the proposing transferor shall be bound upon payment of the price due in respect of all the sale shares to the company. The company may not accept an offer comprised in the transfer notice in part only.
- (8) If the company accepts the offer noted in article 26A(4) it shall pay the price due in respect of all of the sale shares on a date falling no later than 40 working days after the acceptance of such offer.
- (9) Any acceptance by the company of the offer noted in article 26A(4) is given on the basis that the company has, or will have on the date of transfer of the shares, satisfied the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 and any other applicable legislation in relation to the purchase of all the sale shares. If the company cannot purchase all the sale shares as a result of being unable to satisfy the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 or other applicable legislation in relation to such purchase then the company shall be deemed to have declined the offer on the date that such inability became apparent to the directors
- (10) If the company declines or is deemed to have declined the offer noted in article 26A(4), the transfer notice shall constitute the company the agent of the proposing transferor for the sale of all (but not some only) of the sale shares together with all rights then attached thereto to any member or members holding 'A' ordinary shares and willing to buy the same ("purchasing members" (and "purchasing member" shall be interpreted accordingly)) at the transfer price.
- (11) Within five working days of the company declining an offer or being deemed to have declined an offer to purchase the sale shares, the sale shares shall be offered to the members holding 'A' ordinary shares (other than the proposing transferor) as nearly as may be in proportion to the number of ordinary shares held by them. Such offer shall be made by notice in writing ("offer notice") which shall state.

- (a) the identity of the proposing transferor, the number of sale shares and the price per share specified in the transfer notice and inform the members that shares are offered to them in accordance with the provisions of this article 26A(11);
- (b) that the sale shares are offered in the first instance in the proportion referred to in the opening sentence of this article 26A(11) but go on to invite each member to state in his reply whether he wishes to buy more or less shares than his proportionate entitlement and if so what number;
- (c) that each member has the right to request a certificate of value under article 26A(12), the form of such certificate to be as near as circumstances permit to that of the first sentence of that article;
- (d) that each of the sale shares is being offered to members at the transfer price,
- (e) the period in which the offer may be accepted (not being less than 20 working days or more than 40 working days after the date of the offer notice); and
- (f) that, if such a certificate of value is requested, the offer will remain open for acceptance until the expiry of a period of 15 working days commencing on the date of the notice of the certified value given to members pursuant to article 26A(12) or until the expiry of the period referred to in article 26A(11)(e) whichever is the later

For the purpose of this article an offer shall be deemed to be accepted on the day on which the acceptance is received by the company and may, if so specified in the acceptance, be accepted by a member in respect of a lesser number of shares than his full proportionate entitlement. If all the members to whom the offer is made do not accept the offer in respect of their respective proportions in full the sale shares not so accepted shall be used to satisfy any claims for additional shares (notified in response to the invitation referred to in article 26A(11)(b)) as nearly as may be in proportion to the number of 'A' ordinary shares already held by the members claiming additional sale shares, provided that no member shall be obliged to take more shares than he shall have applied for. If any shares shall not be capable of being offered to the members in proportion to their existing holdings, except by way of fractions then (a) if any member so requires, the members shall procure that the shares are sub-divided (so that there are ten shares after such division for every one share before such sub-division), and (b) if the shares still cannot be offered to the members in proportion to their existing holdings, or if no member requires such sub-division, the same shall be offered to the members holding ordinary shares, or some of them, in such proportions as may be determined by lots drawn in regard thereto, and the lots shall be drawn in such manner as the directors may think fit.

- (12) In the case of an offer to members, any member holding ordinary shares (other than the proposing transferor) may, not later than ten working days after the date of the offer notice, serve on the company a notice in writing, and in the case of an offer to the company, the company may not later than ten working days after the receipt of a transfer notice deem such a notice to have been served ("value notice") requesting that a firm of accountants to be approved by the proposing transferor, the relevant members (if the relevant offer is made to members) and the directors certify in writing the sum which in their opinion represents the fair value ("value") of the sale shares as at the date of the transfer notice and the following provisions shall apply

- (a) if the proposing transferor, the relevant members (if the relevant offer is made to members) and the directors fail to agree on a firm of accountants to certify the value, within ten working days of the value notice, or if the accountants decline such appointment at their discretion, a person nominated by the President for the time being of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales on the application of the directors or any member shall be instructed to give such certificate. Any following reference in these articles to the accountants shall include any person so agreed or nominated,
- (b) forthwith upon receipt of the value notice, or deemed service of such a notice, the company shall instruct the accountants to certify the value, and the costs of producing such certificate shall be apportioned among the proposing transferor and the purchasing members and borne by any one or more of them as the accountants in their absolute discretion shall decide;
- (c) in determining the value, the following bases and assumptions will apply:
 - (i) the value shall be determined on the basis of the capital rights of the relevant shares in accordance with article 21A(4),
 - (ii) the transfer is an arm's length sale between a willing buyer and a willing seller;
 - (iii) if the company is then carrying on business as a going concern, it will continue to do so;
 - (iv) no discount shall be applied to minority holdings; and
 - (v) any other factors that the accountants reasonably believe should be taken into account shall be so taken into account;
- (d) in certifying the value the accountants shall be entitled to obtain professional valuations in respect of any of the company's assets and shall be considered to be acting as experts and not as arbitrators or arbiters and accordingly any provisions of law or statute relating to arbitration shall not apply,
- (e) in the case of a value notice requested by a member, forthwith upon receipt of the certificate of the accountants, the company shall by notice in writing inform all members of the certified value and of the price per share (being the lower of the price specified in the transfer notice and the certified value divided by the number of sale shares) at which the sale shares are offered for sale, and
- (f) if the value is less than the aggregate price for the sale shares specified in the transfer notice then, notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary contained in this article 26A, the proposing transferor shall be entitled (save in the case where a transfer notice shall have been deemed or required to have been served pursuant to these articles) to give a counter-notice in writing to the directors within ten working days of the issue of such certificate electing to withdraw the transfer notice.

- (13) In the case of an offer to members, if purchasing members shall be found for all the shares comprised in the transfer notice within the appropriate period specified pursuant to article 26A(11), the company shall not later than ten working days after the expiry of such period give notice in writing ("sale notice") to the proposing transferor specifying the purchasing members and the proposing transferor shall be bound upon payment of the price due in respect of all the sale shares to transfer the sale shares to the purchasing members.
- (14) If in any case the proposing transferor, after having become bound as aforesaid makes default in transferring any sale shares, the company shall receive (or in the case of a transfer of shares to the company, hold) the purchase money on his behalf and the members shall procure that the company authorises some person to execute a transfer of such sale shares on behalf of and as attorney for the proposing transferor in favour of the purchasing members or the company (as the case may be). The company shall hold the purchase monies on trust for the proposing transferor
- (15) In the case of a transfer of sale shares to members, the receipt of the company for the purchase money shall be a good discharge to the purchasing member or purchasing members as the case may be.

Sale to a third party

- (16) If the company is not obliged to give a sale notice to the proposing transferor within the time specified for that purpose in article 26A(13) in respect of sales to purchasing members, the proposing transferor shall, during the period of three months next following the expiry of the time so specified, be at liberty to transfer all but not some only of the shares comprised in the transfer notice to any person or persons provided that the price per share obtained upon such share transfer shall in no circumstances be less than the transfer price and the proposing transferor shall upon request furnish such information to the other members as they shall require in relation to the price per share obtained as aforesaid. The other members may require to be satisfied that such shares are being transferred in pursuance of a bona fide sale for the consideration stated in the transfer without deduction, rebate or allowance whatsoever to the buyer, and if not so satisfied, may procure that the directors refuse to register the instrument of transfer

Unauthorised transfers null and void

- (17) Except for a permitted transfer (as defined in article 26A(19)), any transfer or purported transfer of a share (or any interest therein) made otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of this article 26A is void, and for the avoidance of doubt the directors shall decline to register any such transfer.

Permitted transfers

- (18) The provisions of article 26A(1) to article 26A(16) (inclusive) will not apply to a permitted transfer (as defined in article 26A(19)).
- (19) A "permitted transfer" means
 - (a) any transfer of any shares to which the holders of all the 'A' ordinary shares give their consent in writing, and

- (b) any transfer pursuant to article 26A(20) and article 26A(21) or article 26A(23).

Drag along

- (20) If any shareholder or shareholders holding in aggregate 50% or more of the 'A' ordinary shares and the preference shares (the "sellers") wish to transfer their shares to any independent third party (the "buyer") pursuant to a bona fide arm's length transaction, then the sellers shall also have the option to require all of the other holders of shares to transfer their shares to the buyer, or as the buyer directs, by giving notice (the "drag along notice") to that effect to all such other holders or persons (the "called members") specifying that the called members are or will be required to transfer their shares pursuant to articles 26A(20) and 26A(21) free from all liens, charges and encumbrances and the price (the "proposed price") at which such shares are proposed to be transferred shall be determined in accordance with article 21A(6)
- (21) If the called members (or any of them) default in transferring their shares pursuant to article 26A(20), the provisions of article 26A(14) shall apply to the transfer of such shares mutatis mutandis except that the transfer price shall be the proposed price.
- (22) Following the service of a drag along notice and for as long as such notice remains in effect, shares held by called members may not be transferred otherwise than under article 26A(20)

Tag Along

- (23) If the holders of the 'A' ordinary shares and the preference shares propose to sell in aggregate 10% or more of their 'A' ordinary shares and preference shares for an aggregate sale price that is not less than the hurdle the transferors shall procure the making, by the proposed transferee, of a come along offer to the holders of the 'B' ordinary shares. On receipt of a come along offer, the holders of the 'B' ordinary shares shall be bound within 30 working days of the date of such offer (which date shall be specified in the offer) either to accept or reject such offer in writing (and in default of so doing shall be deemed to have rejected the offer). Until such come along offer has been made and completed, the directors shall not sanction the making and registration of the relevant transfer or transfers
- (24) "Come along offer" means an unconditional offer, open for acceptance for not less than 30 working days, to purchase the same percentage of shares held by the recipients of the come along offer as the transferors are proposing to sell to the proposed transferee free from all liens, charges and encumbrances at a price per share equal to the highest price per share (exclusive of stamp duty, stamp duty reserve tax and commission) paid or to be paid by the proposed transferee (or any person with whom such transferee is connected with or with whom such transferee is acting in concert) for shares (inclusive of the shares giving rise to the obligation to make the come along offer) within the period of one year ending on the proposed date of completion of such transfer of shares

26B. Mandatory transfers

- (1) A mandatory transfer event ("mandatory transfer event") shall occur in relation to a member holding 'B' ordinary shares if:
 - (a) he or she becomes a leaver other than as a consequence of a share sale or an asset sale; or
 - (b) the group fails to achieve any performance targets agreed between the member and the directors
- (2) If a member (in this article 26B called a "mandatory transferor" (which expression shall be deemed to include the personal representatives of a deceased member)) is subject to a mandatory transfer event, any other member may at any time within 30 working days of becoming aware of the mandatory transfer event serve notice in writing on the mandatory transferor in which event such member shall be deemed immediately prior to the occurrence of the mandatory transfer event to have given a transfer notice pursuant to article 26A(2) in respect of their entire holding of shares in the case of a mandatory transfer event under article 26B(1)(a) and in respect of 50 per cent of their holding of shares in the case of a mandatory transfer event under article 26B(1)(b) and to have specified in such transfer notice as the price for such shares

 - (b) in all other circumstances, the fair value of each share to be certified in accordance with article 26A(12).

Any transfer notice or redemption notice served by the mandatory transferor in respect of any of his shares before the mandatory transfer event shall lapse.
- (3) The provisions of articles 26A(1) to 26A(16) (inclusive) shall apply mutatis mutandis to any shares to be transferred pursuant to this article 26B, but on the basis that there is no requirement that all but not some only of the shares which are the subject of the deemed transfer notice must be sold to the other members.
- (4) If the mandatory transferor fails to complete the transfer of shares as required under this article 26B, the company:
 - (a) is irrevocably authorised to appoint any person as agent to transfer the shares on the transferor's behalf and to do anything else that the transferee(s) may reasonably require to complete the sale; and
 - (b) may receive the purchase price in trust for the transferor, giving a receipt that shall discharge the transferees

26C. Right to require evidence

- (1) For the purpose of ensuring that a transfer of shares is duly authorised under article 26A or whether circumstances have arisen whereby any transfer notice is required to be served under article 26B, the members (other than the transferor) may from time to time require any member or past member or the personal representatives, trustee in bankruptcy, receiver, administrative receiver, liquidator, administrator or similar officer of any member or any person named as a transferee in any instrument of transfer lodged for registration, to furnish to them such information and evidence as they may reasonably think fit regarding any matter which they consider relevant to establish whether such transfer is duly authorised or whether any circumstances have arisen whereby a transfer notice is required to be served. Failing such information being furnished to the reasonable satisfaction of the members (other than the transferor) within a reasonable time after it has been requested, or if in the reasonable opinion of the members (other than the transferor) any such information or evidence is false in any material respect, the members may procure that the directors refuse to register the relevant transfer and / or declare by notice in writing to the relevant member, personal representatives, trustees in bankruptcy, receiver, administrative receiver or administrator or similar officer that a transfer notice shall be deemed to have been given in respect of any relevant shares.

- (2) Where a member transfers any shares pursuant to article 26A or article 26B to another member the selling member shall sell its shares on the transfer terms

- (4) Nothing in these articles releases the estate of a deceased member from any liability in respect of a share solely or jointly held by that member

28. Exercise of transmittees' rights

- (1) Transmittees who wish to become the holders of shares to which they have become entitled must notify the company in writing of that wish
- (2) If the transmittee wishes to have a share transferred to another person, the transmittee must execute an instrument of transfer in respect of it.
- (3) All the articles relating to the transfer of shares apply to:
 - (a) any notice in writing given to the company by a transmittee in accordance with article 28(1); and

- (b) any instrument of transfer executed by a transmittee in accordance with article 28(2), as if such notice or instrument were an instrument of transfer executed by the person from whom the transmittee derived rights in respect of the share, and as if the event which gave rise to the transmission had not occurred.

29. Transmittees bound by prior notices

If a notice is given to a shareholder in respect of shares and a transmittee is entitled to those shares, the transmittee is bound by the notice if it was given to the shareholder before the transmittee's name has been entered in the register of members

- (4) The person to whom the shares are transferred is not obliged to ensure that any purchase money is received by the person entitled to the relevant fractions
- (5) The transferee's title to the shares is not affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the process leading to their sale.

- (3) For the purposes of calculating dividends, no account is to be taken of any amount which has been paid up on a share in advance of the due date for payment of that amount

31. Payment of dividends and other distributions

- (1) Where a dividend or other sum which is a distribution is payable in respect of a share, it must be paid by one or more of the following means:
 - (a) transfer to a bank or building society account specified by the distribution recipient either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide,
 - (b) sending a cheque made payable to the distribution recipient by post to the distribution recipient at the distribution recipient's registered address (if the distribution recipient is a holder of the share), or (in any other case) to an address specified by the distribution recipient either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide;

- (3) If.
 - (a) 12 years have passed from the date on which a dividend or other sum became due for payment, and
 - (b) the distribution recipient has not claimed it, the distribution recipient is no longer entitled to that dividend or other sum and it ceases to remain owing by the company

34. Non-cash distributions

- (1) Subject to the terms of issue of the share in question, the company may, by ordinary resolution on the recommendation of the directors, decide to pay all or part of a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share by transferring non-cash assets of equivalent value (including, without limitation, shares or other securities in any company).

- (2) For the purposes of paying a non-cash distribution, the directors may make whatever arrangements they think fit, including, where any difficulty arises regarding the distribution:

 - (b) appropriate any sum which they so decide to capitalise (a "capitalised sum") to the persons who would have been entitled to it if it were distributed by way of dividend (the "persons entitled") and in the same proportions
- (2) Capitalised sums must be applied
 - (a) on behalf of the persons entitled, and
 - (b) in the same proportions as a dividend would have been distributed to them

A resolution put to the vote of a general meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is duly demanded in accordance with the articles.

43. Errors and disputes

- (1) No objection may be raised to the qualification of any person voting at a general meeting except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting is valid
- (2) Any such objection must be referred to the chairman of the meeting, whose decision is final

44. Poll votes

- (1) A poll on a resolution may be demanded.
 - (a) in advance of the general meeting where it is to be put to the vote, or
 - (b) at a general meeting, either before a show of hands on that resolution or immediately after the result of a show of hands on that resolution is declared.
- (2) A poll may be demanded by.
 - (a) the chairman of the meeting;
 - (b) the directors;
 - (c) two or more persons having the right to vote on the resolution, or
 - (d) a person or persons representing not less than one tenth of the total voting rights of all the shareholders having the right to vote on the

- (4) Polls must be taken immediately and in such manner as the chairman of the meeting directs.

45. Content of proxy notices

- (1) Proxies may only validly be appointed by a notice in writing (a "proxy notice") which.
 - (a) states the name and address of the shareholder appointing the proxy,
 - (b) identifies the person appointed to be that shareholder's proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed;
 - (c) is signed by or on behalf of the shareholder appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the directors may determine;
 - (d) is delivered to the company in accordance with the articles and any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting to which they relate, and
 - (e) proxy notices and any authentication of such notices demanded by the company must be received at an address specified by the company in the proxy notice not less than 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the proxy appointed pursuant to the proxy notice proposes to vote; and any proxy notice or authentication of such notice received at such address less than 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting shall be invalid.
- (2) The company may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes
- (3) Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions.
- (4) Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as:
 - (a) allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting; and
 - (b) appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.

46. Delivery of proxy notices

- (1) A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the company by or on behalf of that person.

- (2) An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the company a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given.
- (3) A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.
- (4) If a proxy notice is not executed by the person appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence of the authority of the person who executed it to execute it on the appointor's behalf.

 - (b) the proposed amendment does not, in the reasonable opinion of the chairman of the meeting, materially alter the scope of the resolution
- (2) A special resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution, if
 - (a) the chairman of the meeting proposes the amendment at the general meeting at which the resolution is to be proposed, and
 - (b) the amendment does not go beyond what is necessary to correct a grammatical or other non-substantive error in the resolution.
- (3) If the chairman of the meeting, acting in good faith, wrongly decides that an amendment to a resolution is out of order, the chairman's error does not invalidate the vote on that resolution
