The company is entitled to exemption from audit under Section 249A(1) of the Companies Act 1985 for the year ending 31 December 1995.

No notice has been deposited under Section 249B(2) of the Companies Act 1985 in relation to its financial statements for the financial year.

The directors acknowledge their responsibilities for:

- (a) ensuring that the company keeps accounting records which comply with Section 221 of the Companies Act 1985 and
- (b) preparing financial statements which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at the end of each financial year and of its profit or loss for each financial year in accordance with the requirements of Section 226 and which otherwise comply with the requirements of the Companies Act 1985 relating to financial statements, so far as applicable to the company.

BALANCE SHEET 31 DECEMBER 1995

In preparing these financial statements, the directors have taken advantage of special exemptions applicable to small companies conferred by Part I of Schedule 8 to the Companies Act 1985. The directors have done so on the grounds that, in their opinion, the company is entitled to the benefit of those exemptions because it meets the qualifying conditions for small companies as stated in Section 247 of the Companies Act 1985.

11. TRANSACTIONS WITH DIRECTORS

All the lessees of the property are directors of the company and have agreed to pay regular amounts to cover the cost of maintenance of the property. However in 1995 a major cost of £6072 was incurred for the external redecoration of the property which has resulted in all directors current accounts being in debit at the year end.
