To develop food enterprises and suitable activities for the growth and enjoyment of our beneficiaries. The education and employment of workers and volunteers

Summary of the main achievements during the period

This year we have held regular volunteer days each month, growing food and developing the site Fundraised through our new fun run and 10k run and chase across the moors as well as held a barn dance

A volunteer has set up a PIG project in partnership raising 4 pigs and cultivating the land for planting next year

Held vision meetings to plan for the next 5 years

Raised funds for materials and Christmas presents of chickens and trees for fruit as well as making jams honey and chutneys for sale

Two paying customers are regularly with us and a small band of volunteers continue to grow

We employ a development worker for one day a week and are aiming to increase this resource

Continue to enjoy developing networks and relationships with local people some of whom help regularly

Enjoy a growing sponsorship from TATA STEEL our local industrial employer

Directors report for the year ending 31/5/2013

Directors responsibilities for the financial statements

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial period which show the state of affairs of the company and of net income or expenditure of the company for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the Directors are required to select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently, make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless i is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in operation state whether applicable accounting standards of recommended practice have been followed subject to any departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements

The Directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable the Directors to prepare financial statements. The Directors are responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention of fraud and other irregularities.

This report has been prepared in accordance with the special provisions for small companies under Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006

This report was approved by the Directors on 911204 and is signed on their behalf by Independent Examiner's report on the Accounts of Greave House Farm Trust for the year ending 31/5/2013

I report on the accounts of Greave House Farm Trust for the year ended 31st May 2013 which are set out on pages 6 to 10

Respective responsibilities of the Directors and the examiner

The Directors are responsible for the preparation of the accounts

The Directors consider that an audit is not required for this year (under section 144 (2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act)) and that an independent examination is needed

It is my	responsibility to ū	examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act, to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners (under section 145 (5) (b)of the 2011 Act), and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general directions given by the Charities Commissioners. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1)		ch gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the uirements
	0	to keep appropriate accounting records in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006, and to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the Companies Act 2006 hav	re not been met, or to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached
