ACCOUNTING POLICIES

FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31 MARCH 2000

The following accounting policies have been used consistently in dealing with items which are considered material in relation to the Company's accounts.

Basis of Preparation

The accounts have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

Income

Income represents members contributions received.

Deferred Taxation

Deferred taxation is provided under the liability method. Whereas the directors consider that the liability is unlikely to become payable in the foreseeable future no provision is made.

Foreign Currencies

Transactions denominated in foreign currencies are translated into sterling at the exchange rates at the date of transaction. Monetary assets and liabilities are translated into sterling at the exchange rate at the balance sheet date.

Taxation

In the opinion of the Directors, the Company is a mutual Company working for and representing the interest of its members. The Company does not engage in any trading activity relating to non-members. As a result, the Company is not liable to corporation tax on its income from its members. However, investment income is liable to corporation tax.
