The authorised share capital of the company was 1,000 shares of £1 each for both the current period and preceding year.

During the period, the company acted as an agent but it did not undertake any transactions as a principal. The company's ultimate controlling party is Andrew Cohen.

The company is dormant and did not trade during the current period or preceding year and accordingly no profit and loss account has been prepared. The company made neither a profit nor had any other recognised gain or loss.

For the period ended 31st December 2005 the company was entitled to exemption under section 249aa(1) of the Companies Act 1985. No members have required the company to obtain an audit of its accounts for the period in question in accordance with section 249b(2).

The directors acknowledge their responsibilities for:

- ensuring that the company keeps accounting records which comply with section 221 of the Companies Act 1985; and
- preparing accounts which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at the end of its financial period, and of its profit and loss for the financial period in accordance with section 226, and which otherwise comply with the requirements of the Companies Act relating to accounts, so far as applicable to the company.
