Dear Sir or Madam

Bugden Limited
(In Members' Voluntary Liquidation) ("the Company")

Samantha Jane Keen and I were appointed as Joint Liquidators of the Company on 20 June 2017. I write to advise you that we are now in a position to conclude the liquidation.

This letter, and its appendices, constitutes our proposed final account to members.

I enclose formal notice of our intention to deliver a final account. Under Rule 5.9(4) of the Insolvency (England and Wales) Rules 2016 (the Rules), we may conclude that the Company's affairs are fully wound up before the date given in the notice if every member of the Company confirms in writing that (i) they do not intend to make any request for further information under Rule 18.9 of the Rules and (ii) that they do not intend to make an application to court under Rule 18.34 of the Rules to challenge our remuneration or expenses.

We have not so far received any requests for further information, nor have any concerns been raised about my remuneration or expenses.

In order to bring the liquidation to a close as efficiently as possible, we would like to treat this account as the final account, without sending out another in 8 weeks' time. In order to do so, we must have your written confirmation as outlined above. If you are content for us to conclude the liquidation in this way, please would you sign and date the confirmation at the foot of one copy of the enclosed notice and return it to me within the next 7 days either by email to dhart1@uk.ey.com or by post to the address above.

Information about the Company and the Liquidators

The Rules require us to provide certain information about the Company and the liquidators. The information can be found in Appendix A of this document. A copy of our receipts and payments account for the period from 20 June 2017 to 11 December 2017 is at Appendix B.

Progress during the period covered by the account

Assets

As at the date of the liquidation, the Company's only asset was an intercompany receivable balance in the sum of £1,000 due from Tesco Property Holdings Limited. The intercompany receivable balance was distributed in specie to the shareholder on 11 December 2017 and represented a return of £1 per ordinary share.

Liabilities

The Company had no known external creditors at the date of liquidation. In accordance with Rule 14.38(1)(c) of the Insolvency (England and Wales) Rules 2016, an advert was placed in the London Gazette requesting creditors of the Company to prove their claims by 31 July 2017. No such claims were received.

Building a better
working world

It is customary in a liquidation to seek confirmation from the relevant Crown authorities that they have no claim in respect of corporation tax, VAT, PAYE and National Insurance Contributions. HM Revenue and Customs have confirmed that they have no claims in respect of corporation tax, PAYE and National Insurance.

Joint Liquidators' remuneration

Our remuneration was fixed on a time-cost basis by a resolution of the members passed on 20 June 2017. Details of amounts paid, name of the payor and the relationship between the payor and the Company, are available upon request to me at 1 More London Place, London, SE1 2AF.

Please note that remuneration paid also relate to the liquidation of several other subsidiaries of Tesco plc. There is no recourse to the estate in respect of our fees as a contractual arrangement exists with another group company.

Joint Liquidators' statement of expenses incurred

During the period covered by this report, we have incurred expenses relating to statutory advertising and statutory bonding which have also been paid by another group company. There is no recourse to the estate in respect of our expenses as a contractual arrangement exists with another group company.

Members' rights to further information about, and challenge, remuneration and expenses

In certain circumstances, members are entitled to request further information about our remuneration or expenses, or to apply to court if members consider the costs to be excessive. Further information is provided in Appendix C.

Other matters

Upon expiry of the eight week notice period, our final return and account will be filed at Companies House. We will then vacate office and receive our release. Approximately three months after the filing of the final return and account, the Company will be dissolved by the Registrar of Companies.

Should you wish to discuss any matters arising from this report, please do not hesitate to contact Sophie Watkins on the direct line telephone number shown above.

Yours faithfully
for the Company

Richard Barker
Joint Liquidator
