Articles of Association

of

St Giles Hospice

1. Name

The name of the Company, hereinafter called “the Charity” is St Giles Hospice.

2. National location of principal office

The principal office of the Charity is in England.

3. Objects

The objects of the Charity are specifically restricted to the relief of sickness and the preservation of health, in such ways as the Charity shall from time to time determine, within England and Wales.

4. Powers

The Charity has power to do anything lawful which is calculated to further its objects or is conducive or incidental to doing so. In particular, the Charity’s powers include power to:

- (1) borrow money and to charge the whole or any part of its property as security for the repayment of the money borrowed. The Charity must comply as appropriate with sections 124 and 125 of the Charities Act 2011 if it wishes to mortgage land;
- (2) buy, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any property and to maintain and equip it for use;
- (3) sell, lease or otherwise dispose of all or any part of the property belonging to the Charity. In exercising this power, the Charity must comply as appropriate with sections 117 and 119- 123 of the Charities Act 2011;
- (4) employ and remunerate such staff as are necessary for carrying out the work of the Charity. The Charity may employ or remunerate a Charity trustee only to the extent that it is permitted to do so by clause 6 (Benefits and payments to Charity trustees and connected persons) and provided it complies with the conditions of those clauses;
- (5) deposit or invest funds, employ a professional fund-manager, and arrange for the investments or other property of the Charity to be held in the name of a nominee, in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as the trustees of a trust are permitted to do by the Trustee Act 2000;
- (6) accept (or disclaim) any gift of money, legacy or other property;
- (7) raise funds by way of subscription, donation or otherwise;
- (8) co-operate with other bodies and to exchange information and advice with them;
- (9) provide or procure the provision of advice;
- (10) publish and distribute books, pamphlets, reports and leaflets and other form of information on the Charity;

(11) take out such insurance policies as are necessary to protect the Charity;

5. Application of income and property

(1) The income and property of the Charity must be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects.

(a) A Charity trustee is entitled to be reimbursed from the property of the Charity or may pay out of such property reasonable expenses properly incurred by him or her when acting on behalf of the Charity.

(b) A Charity trustee may benefit from trustee indemnity insurance cover purchased at the Charity's expense in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 189 of the Charities Act 2011.

(2) None of the income or property of the Charity may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise by way of profit to any member of the Charity. This does not prevent a member who is not also a Charity trustee receiving:

(a) a benefit from the Charity as a beneficiary of the Charity;

(b) reasonable and proper remuneration for any goods or services supplied to the Charity.

(3) Nothing in this clause shall prevent a Charity trustee or connected person receiving any benefit or payment which is authorised by Clause 6.

6. Benefits and payments to Charity trustees and connected persons

(1) General provisions

No Charity trustee or connected person may:

(a) buy or receive any goods or services from the Charity on terms preferential to those applicable to members of the public;

(b) sell goods, services, or any interest in land to the Charity;

(c) be employed by, or receive any remuneration from, the Charity;

(d) receive any other financial benefit from the Charity;

unless the payment or benefit is permitted by sub-clause (2) of this clause, or authorised by the court or the prior written consent of the Charity Commission ("the Commission") has been obtained. In this clause, a "financial benefit" means a benefit, direct or indirect, which is either money or has a monetary value.

(2) Scope and powers permitting trustees' or connected persons' benefits

(a) A Charity trustee or connected person may receive a benefit from the Charity as a beneficiary of the Charity provided that a majority of the trustees do not benefit in this way.

(b) A Charity trustee or connected person may enter into a contract for the supply of services, or of goods that are supplied in connection with the provision of services, to the Charity where that is permitted in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 185 to 188 of the Charities Act 2011.

- (c) Subject to sub-clause (3) of this clause a Charity trustee or connected person may provide the Charity with goods that are not supplied in connection with services provided to the Charity by the Charity trustee or connected person.
- (d) A Charity trustee or connected person may receive interest on money lent to the Charity at a reasonable and proper rate which must be not more than the Bank of England bank rate (also known as the base rate).
- (e) A Charity trustee or connected person may receive rent for premises let by the trustee or connected person to the Charity. The amount of the rent and the other terms of the lease must be reasonable and proper. The Charity trustee concerned must withdraw from any meeting at which such a proposal or the rent or other terms of the lease are under discussion.
- (f) A Charity trustee or connected person may take part in the normal trading and fundraising activities of the Charity on the same terms as members of the public.

(3) Payment for supply of goods only – controls

The Charity and its Charity trustees may only rely upon the authority provided by sub-clause (2)(c) of this clause if each of the following conditions is satisfied:

- (a) The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods is set out in a written agreement between the Charity and the Charity trustee or connected person supplying the goods (“the supplier”).
- (b) The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the supply of the goods in question.
- (c) The other Charity trustees are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the Charity to contract with the supplier rather than with someone who is not a Charity trustee or connected person. In reaching that decision the Charity trustees must balance the advantage of contracting with a Charity trustee or connected person against the disadvantages of doing so.
- (d) The supplier is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contract or arrangement with him or her or it with regard to the supply of goods to the Charity.
- (e) The supplier does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of Charity trustees is present at the meeting.
- (f) The reason for their decision is recorded by the Charity trustees in the minute book.
- (g) A majority of the Charity trustees then in office are not in receipt of remuneration or payments authorised by clause 6.

(4) In sub-clauses (2) and (3) of this clause:

- (a) “the Charity” includes any company in which the Charity:
 - (i) holds more than 50% of the shares; or
 - (ii) controls more than 50% of the voting rights attached to the shares; or
 - (iii) has the right to appoint one or more directors to the board of the company;

- (b) “connected person” includes any person within the definition set out in clause [30] (Interpretation);

7. Conflicts of interest and conflicts of loyalty

A Charity trustee must:

- (1) declare the nature and extent of any interest, direct or indirect, which he or she has in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the Charity or in any transaction or arrangement entered into by the Charity which has not previously been declared; and
- (2) absent himself or herself from any discussions of the Charity trustees in which it is possible that a conflict of interest will arise between his or her duty to act solely in the interests of the Charity and any personal interest (including but not limited to any financial interest).

Any Charity trustee absenting himself or herself from any discussions in accordance with this clause must not vote or be counted as part of the quorum in any decision of the Charity trustees on the matter.

8. Liability of members to contribute to the assets of the Charity if it is wound up

- (1) If the Charity is wound up, each member of the Charity is liable to contribute to the assets of the Charity such amount (but not more than £10) as may be required for payment of the debts and liabilities of the Charity contracted before that person or organisation ceases to be a member, for payment of the costs, charges and expenses of winding up, and for adjustment of the rights of the contributing members among themselves.
- (2) In sub-clause (1) of this clause “member” includes any person or organisation that was a member of the Charity within 12 months before the commencement of the winding up.
- (3) But subject to that, the members of the Charity have no liability to contribute to its assets if it is wound up, and accordingly have no personal responsibility for the settlement of its debts and liabilities beyond the amount that they are liable to contribute.

9. Membership of the Charity

(1) Admission of new members

(a) Eligibility

Membership of the Charity is open to anyone who is interested in furthering its purposes, and who, by applying for membership, has indicated his, her or its agreement to become a member and acceptance of the duty of members set out in sub-clause (3) of this clause.

A member may be an individual, a corporate body, or an individual or corporate body representing an organisation which is not incorporated.

(b) Admission procedure

The Charity trustees:

- (i) may require applications for membership to be made in any reasonable way that they decide;
- (ii) shall, if they approve an application for membership, notify the applicant of their decision within 21 days;
- (iii) may refuse an application for membership if they believe that it is in the best interests of the Charity for them to do so;

- (iv) shall, if they decide to refuse an application for membership, give the applicant their reasons for doing so, within 21 days of the decision being taken, and give the applicant the opportunity to appeal against the refusal; and
- (v) shall give fair consideration to any such appeal, and shall inform the applicant of their decision, but any decision to confirm refusal of the application for membership shall be final.

(2) Transfer of membership

Membership of the Charity is not transferrable.

(3) Duty of members

It is the duty of each member of the Charity to exercise his or her powers as a member of the Charity in the way he or she decides in good faith would be most likely to further the purposes of the Charity.

(4) Termination of membership

(a) Membership of the Charity comes to an end if:

- (i) the member dies, or, in the case of an organisation (or the representative of an organisation) that organisation ceases to exist; or
- (ii) the member sends a notice of resignation to the Charity trustees; or
- (iii) any sum of money owed by the member to the Charity is not paid in full within six months of its falling due; or
- (iv) the Charity trustees decide that it is in the best interests of the Charity that the member in question should be removed from membership, and pass a resolution to that effect.
- (v) the membership is held by a Charity trustee, who has been removed as a Charity trustee pursuant to clause 15 (e) or has been disqualified from acting as a Charity trustee pursuant to clause 15 (f)

(b) Before the Charity trustees take any decision to remove someone from membership of the Charity pursuant to clause 9 (4) (a) (iv) they must:

- (i) inform the member of the reasons why it is proposed to remove him, her or it from membership;
- (ii) give the member at least 21 clear days notice in which to make representations to the Charity trustees as to why he, she or it should not be removed from membership;
- (iii) at a duly constituted meeting of the Charity trustees, consider whether or not the member should be removed from membership;
- (iv) consider at that meeting any representations which the member makes as to why the member should not be removed; and
- (v) allow the member, or the member's representative, to make those representations in person at that meeting, if the member so chooses.

(c) Where a decision has been made to terminate the membership of a member pursuant to clause 9 (4) (a) (iv) and subject to the Charity's compliance with clause 9 (4) (b), there shall be no right of appeal

- (d) Any member who ceases to be a member of the Charity pursuant to this clause 4 shall remain liable to pay the Charity any/all sums owed by them

(5) Membership fees

The Charity may require members to pay reasonable membership fees to the Charity.

(6) Informal or associate (non-voting) membership

- (a) The Charity trustees may create associate or other classes of non-voting membership, and may determine the rights and obligations of any such members (including payment of membership fees), and the conditions for admission to, and termination of membership of any such class of members.
- (b) Other references in this constitution to “members” and “membership” do not apply to non-voting members, and non-voting members do not qualify as members for any purpose under the Charities Acts, General Regulations or Dissolution Regulations.

10. Members’ decisions

(1) General provisions

Except for those decisions that must be taken in a particular way as indicated in sub-clause (4) of this clause, decisions of the members of the Charity may be taken either by vote at a general meeting as provided in sub-clause (2) of this clause or by written resolution as provided in sub-clause (3) of this clause.

(2) Taking ordinary decisions by vote

Subject to sub-clause (4) of this clause, any decision of the members of the Charity may be taken by means of a resolution at a general meeting. Such a resolution may be passed by a simple majority of votes cast at the meeting (including votes cast by postal or email ballot, and proxy votes).

(3) Taking ordinary decisions by written resolution without a general meeting

- (a) Subject to sub-clause (4) of this clause, a resolution in writing agreed by a simple majority of all the members who would have been entitled to vote upon it had it been proposed at a general meeting shall be effective, provided that:
 - (i) a copy of the proposed resolution has been sent to all the members eligible to vote; and
 - (ii) a simple majority of members has signified its agreement to the resolution in a document or documents which are received at the principal office within the period of 28 days beginning with the circulation date. The document signifying a member’s agreement must be authenticated by their signature (or in the case of an organisation which is a member, by execution according to its usual procedure), by a statement of their identity accompanying the document, or in such other manner as the Charity has specified.
- (b) The resolution in writing may comprise several copies to which one or more members has signified their agreement.
- (c) Eligibility to vote on the resolution is limited to members who are members of the Charity on the date when the proposal is first circulated in accordance with paragraph (a) above.
- (d) Not less than 10% of the members of the Charity may request the Charity trustees to make a proposal for decision by the members pursuant to this clause 10 (3).

(e) The Charity trustees must within 21 days of receiving such a request comply with it if:

- (i) The proposal is not frivolous or vexatious, and does not involve the publication of defamatory material;
- (ii) The proposal is stated with sufficient clarity to enable effect to be given to it if it is agreed by the members; and
- (iii) Effect can lawfully be given to the proposal if it is so agreed.

(f) Sub-clauses (a) to (c) of this clause apply to a proposal made at the request of members.

(4) Decisions that must be taken in a particular way

(1) Types of general meeting

There must be an annual general meeting (AGM) of the members of the Charity. The first AGM must be held within 18 months of the registration of the Charity, and subsequent AGMs must be held at intervals of not more than 15 months at such place, including partly (but not wholly) by means of electronic facility or facilities, as may be determined by the Charity trustees. The AGM must receive the annual statement of accounts (duly audited or examined where applicable) and the trustees' annual report, and must elect trustees as required under clause [13].

Other general meetings of the members of the Charity may be held at any time at such place, including partly (but not wholly) by means of electronic facility or facilities, as may be determined by the Charity trustees.

All general meetings must be held in accordance with the following provisions.

Notice shall be deemed to be given 48 hours after it was posted or sent or if sent via email, at the time of transmission.
- (e) The proceedings of a meeting shall not be invalidated because a member who was entitled to receive notice of the meeting did not receive it because of accidental omission by the Charity.

(4) Chairing of general meetings

The person nominated as chair by the Charity trustees under clause 19 (2) (Chairing of meetings), shall, if present at the general meeting and willing to act, preside as chair of the meeting. Subject to that, the members of the Charity who are present at a general meeting shall elect a chair to preside at the meeting.

(5) Quorum at general meetings

- (a) No business may be transacted at any general meeting of the members of the Charity unless a quorum is present when the meeting starts.
- (b) Subject to the following provisions, the quorum for general meetings shall be the greater of 5% or three members who are in each case, entitled to vote. - (e) If a quorum is not present within 15 minutes of the start time of the adjourned meeting, the member or members present at the meeting constitute a quorum.
- (f) If at any time during the meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting may discuss issues and make recommendations to the trustees but may not make any decisions. If decisions are required which must be made by a meeting of the members, the meeting must be adjourned.

(6) Voting at general meetings

- (a) Any decision other than one falling within clause 10(4) (Decisions that must be taken in a particular way) shall be taken by a simple majority of votes cast at the meeting (including proxy and postal votes). Every member has one vote unless otherwise provided in the rights of a particular class of membership under this constitution.
- (b) A resolution put to the vote of a meeting shall be decided on a show of hands, unless (before

(c) The organisation must give written notice of the name of its representative to the Charity and, in the absence of such notice, the Charity shall not be obliged to recognise the entitlement of the organisation's representative to exercise the rights of the organisation at general meetings. (d) The Charity shall be entitled to consider that any notice received by it in accordance with 11 (7) (c) is conclusive evidence that the representative is entitled to represent the organisation and that the representative's authority has not been revoked. (8) Adjournment of meetings

The chair may with the consent of a meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting) adjourn the meeting to another time and/or place. No business may be transacted at an
