INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS' REPORT TO THE MEMBERS ON THE UNAUDITED ACCOUNTS OF THE SOLDIERS OF GLOUCESTERSHIRE MUSEUM

We report on the accounts for the year ended 31 March 2008 set out on pages 5 to 20

This report is made solely to the charity's members, as a body, in accordance with Section 249C of the Companies Act 1985 Our reporting work has been undertaken so that we might state to the charity's members those matters we are required to state to them in an independent accountants' report and for no other purpose To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the charity and the charity's members as a body, for our reporting work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed

Respective responsibilities of executive board and reporting accountants

As described on page 8 the members of the charitable company's executive board, who are also the directors of The Soldiers Of Gloucestershire Museum for the purpose of company law, are responsible for the preparation of the accounts, and they consider that the company is exempt from an audit. It is our responsibility to carry out procedures designed to enable us to report our opinion

Basis of opinion

Our work was conducted in accordance with the Statement of Standards for Reporting Accountants, and so our procedures consisted of comparing the accounts with the accounting records kept by the company, and making such limited enquiries of the officers of the company as we considered necessary for the purposes of this report. These procedures provide only the assurance expressed in our opinion

Opinion

In our opinion

- (a) the accounts are in agreement with the accounting records kept by the charitable company under section 221 of the Companies Act 1985,
- (b) having regard only to, and on the basis of, the information contained in those accounting records
  - the accounts have been drawn up in a manner consistent with the accounting requirements specified in section 249C(6) of the Act, and
  - the charitable company satisfied the conditions for exemption from an audit of the accounts for the year specified in section 249A(4) of the Act and did not, at any time within that year, fall within any of the categories of companies not entitled to the exemption specified in section 249B(1)
